Governor Loren D. Dickinson was recently quoted in the Grand Rapids Herald saying: "Let us return to the faith of our fathers, let us re-extend the family affiliations."

Immediately some will ask: "What prayers shall we say?" The answer is — the prayers of the Church. Let us consider the English translation of the Breviary.

"The whole Christian world, viewing the world scene to-day, is living in the days of the worst. The armies of the world stand at the brink of the abyss. Where are the men of God in this hour of need? . . . Why not re-establish that beautiful custom — the prayers of the Church."
