Student Guild Meets Oct. 22

President Terrance Land announces that the first Student Guild meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 22, at 10 a.m. in Room 202 of the Administration building. Officiating at the meeting will be a large representation from each class and the student body. In the meeting program of activities may be organized by the Student Association for future meetings. Special guests will be the newly initiated freshmen who will be introduced to the policies and procedures of the Guild.

Student Body Honors Lady of Fatima

Aquinas Participates in Fifth Annual Diocesan Congress

Aquinas college students and faculty will participate in the Grand Rapids Diocesan Congress, Oct. 10-12 at the Civic Auditorium. The general theme will be "Chastity and the Child." The Rev. Adrian T. English, O.P., associate professor of theology and history, is chairman of the college and high school senior session of the Congress. Aquinas students will attend this session on Friday, Oct. 10, from 10:30 to 12 a.m. The topics will be "Modesty" and "Industry and the Doctrine." Tableaux of Columbus, the Jesuit martyrs, and Washington at Valley Forge will be done by Aquinas students.

Fr. Max Jordan To Lecture Here Oct. 21

Paul Philipps of the Urban League will speak on the housing situation in Grand Rapids Thursday, Oct. 23, at 8 p.m. in the St. Cecilia auditorium. The Rev. Adrian T. English, O.P., will be the speaker for the occasion.

A general increase in the enrollment at Aquinas is shown in figure released by Sister M. Blan- dina, O.P., registratur. The enroll- ment of the freshmen class is 158, an increase of 15 over last year's class.

Three Join Aquinas Faculty

Two priests and a Sister have joined the Aquinas faculty this semester. The Rev. Adrian T. English, O.P., S.T.L., S.T.Lr., and lecturer at Central Michigan College of Educa- tion, replaces Sister M. Henry Suso in the Aquinas music depart- ment, Sister Henry Suno is now in the Mount Pleasant schools.

Join Novitiate

Five more Aquinas students have chosen religious life as their vocation. In the Dominican Noviciate, Sr. Gertrude Beekly, Sr. Mary Car- lina, a last year's freshman, and Joanna Hoffman.

Aquinas College Bids N.F.C.C.S. Here

Aquinas College is making a bid for the third Regional Council Meeting of the N.F.C.C.S. on Feb. 8, 1953. LIG Chairman James Al- Hugh, senior, and Junior Delegate Frank Vanasse, freshmen, will make the request at the second regional council meeting Nov. 23 at Marywood College, Waynes, Indiana.

President Addresses Greeneville K. of C.

Rev. Dr. Max Jordan, world noted priest-journalist, will lecture on "Chaos of Man and Order of God" Foreign Correspondent Makes First Lecture Tour as Priest

Rev. Dr. Max Jordan, world noted priest-journalist, will lecture on "The Chaos of Man and Order of God," Tuesday, Oct. 21, at 8:15 in the St. Cecilia auditorium. This will be the first Aquinas open lecture of the year.

Ordained to the priesthood last December by Archbishop Aloisius J. Muench, Apostolic Nuncio, in the Benedictine Abbey Church of Beuron, Germany, Father Jordan is now making his first United States speaking tour as a priest.

A distinguished convert to the Catholic faith, he has been widely known for the past twenty years as foreign correspondent for the NCWC News Service in Berlin. While World War II he was a correspondent for Hitler's "Iron curtain," breaking through Hitler's "Iron Curtain," using every means at his disposal to keep open the full scope of the Nazi war against the Catholic Church. Some of his most re- cent dispatches have been reports of Communist oppression of the Church in various European countries.

As European director and later religious editor for the National Broadcasting Company, he was often ahead of his colleagues with commentaries on historical de- velopments. Announcing Hitler's declaration of war from Berlin was one of his world "scops." For his exclusive broadcast from Switz- erland announcing the end of World War II he received the Na- tional Headliners award.

Born in San Remo, Italy, April 21, 1895, and educated at the Uni- versities of Frankfurt, Jena and Berlin, Dr. Jordan has been a world traveler, photographer, writer, and lecturer. He was one of the main speakers of the main speakers of the Aquinas lecture series in 1942. He spoke then on "Europe, Now and After."
Keep Up Your Spirit, Frosh!

We've pleased no end, here at the Herald, to see the good and goodwill so evident in the faces of the new freshmen on campus this year — and, as ever, the frosh being the lifeblood of the school, they have given us a lot of inspiration.

But as in every punkin season, we'll know a good crop when the peas are cut — Soo, froth, it's time to turn to the frosh, to develop your talents individually and as a class, and in that development, be ready for your future years. They won't be a carefree vacation.

All too often your “morn-to-go-attitude”, which frowned on frosh, will be forever “Blaming it on the Froshmen” or digging out the froshmen who are not present.

The campaign is on. Show your colors!

Aqueens, For All!

According to a summary report of the enrollment of Aquinas College lately issued by the Registrar, there are 79 new freshmen — and, however, there are only 79 freshmen women who recently adopted Aquinas as their college, only 25, or less than 25% of the entire class were initiated in last week’s initiation program sponsored by the resident au­diumen.

But, that is so much overlooked and so much disapproved of by the residents of Marian hall in no way help to unify the teaching profession. The free hours are arranged in between classes and so make observation of the different high schools in the city rather difficult.

There are still things which cannot be affected by inflation. Have you stopped

Aquinas students, asked last week about their political preferences in the coming Nov. 4 election, came up with varied answers.

Anton Krizan, junior from Hobart, Ind., believes “Ike” is the man who will stand on his own two feet and not follow the old Republican policies. She believes that Stev­enson would promote many of Trum­an’s programs.

* * * *

If you’ve seen Marge Zettel hobbling around campus, you probably noticed the cause, just place the blame on the National Council of Catholic Women. It seems Margie was caught in a mad rush to buy her wedding suit at Sue Van Lean’s. wedding.

* * * *

It seems Margie was caught in a mad rush to buy her wedding suit at Sue Van Lean’s. wedding.

* * * *

Belding senior, “I’m a Republican and I intend to vote for Eisenhower because he is the lesser of two evils.”

Ronald Spielmaker, Grand Rapids senior, “I am for Eisenhower because he is less of a politician than is his opponent.

* * * *

According to a summ ary report of the enrollment of Aquinas College lately issued by the Registrar, there are 79 new freshmen — and, however, there are only 79 freshmen women who recently adopted Aquinas as their college, only 25, or less than 25% of the entire class were initiated in last week’s initiation program sponsored by the resident au­diumen.

But, that is so much overlooked and so much disapproved of by the residents of Marian hall in no way help to unify the teaching profession. The free hours are arranged in between classes and so make observation of the different high schools in the city rather difficult.

There are still things which cannot be affected by inflation. Have you stopped

Aquinas students, asked last week about their political preferences in the coming Nov. 4 election, came up with varied answers.

Anton Krizan, junior from Hobart, Ind., believes “Ike” is the man who will stand on his own two feet and not follow the old Republican policies. She believes that Stev­enson would promote many of Trum­an’s programs.

* * * *

If you’ve seen Marge Zettel hobbling around campus, you probably noticed the cause, just place the blame on the National Council of Catholic Women. It seems Margie was caught in a mad rush to buy her wedding suit at Sue Van Lean’s. wedding.

* * * *

Belding senior, “I’m a Republican and I intend to vote for Eisenhower because he is the lesser of two evils.”

Ronald Spielmaker, Grand Rapids senior, “I am for Eisenhower because he is less of a politician than is his opponent.

* * * *

According to a summ ary report of the enrollment of Aquinas College lately issued by the Registrar, there are 79 new freshmen — and, however, there are only 79 freshmen women who recently adopted Aquinas as their college, only 25, or less than 25% of the entire class were initiated in last week’s initiation program sponsored by the resident au­diumen.

But, that is so much overlooked and so much disapproved of by the residents of Marian hall in no way help to unify the teaching profession. The free hours are arranged in between classes and so make observation of the different high schools in the city rather difficult.

There are still things which cannot be affected by inflation. Have you stopped

Aquinas students, asked last week about their political preferences in the coming Nov. 4 election, came up with varied answers.

Anton Krizan, junior from Hobart, Ind., believes “Ike” is the man who will stand on his own two feet and not follow the old Republican policies. She believes that Stev­enson would promote many of Trum­an’s programs.

* * * *

If you’ve seen Marge Zettel hobbling around campus, you probably noticed the cause, just place the blame on the National Council of Catholic Women. It seems Margie was caught in a mad rush to buy her wedding suit at Sue Van Lean’s. wedding.

* * * *

Belding senior, “I’m a Republican and I intend to vote for Eisenhower because he is the lesser of two evils.”

Ronald Spielmaker, Grand Rapids senior, “I am for Eisenhower because he is less of a politician than is his opponent.

* * * *

According to a summ ary report of the enrollment of Aquinas College lately issued by the Registrar, there are 79 new freshmen — and, however, there are only 79 freshmen women who recently adopted Aquinas as their college, only 25, or less than 25% of the entire class were initiated in last week’s initiation program sponsored by the resident au­diumen.

But, that is so much overlooked and so much disapproved of by the residents of Marian hall in no way help to unify the teaching profession. The free hours are arranged in between classes and so make observation of the different high schools in the city rather difficult.

There are still things which cannot be affected by inflation. Have you stopped

Aquinas students, asked last week about their political preferences in the coming Nov. 4 election, came up with varied answers.

Anton Krizan, junior from Hobart, Ind., believes “Ike” is the man who will stand on his own two feet and not follow the old Republican policies. She believes that Stev­enson would promote many of Trum­an’s programs.

* * * *

If you’ve seen Marge Zettel hobbling around campus, you probably noticed the cause, just place the blame on the National Council of Catholic Women. It seems Margie was caught in a mad rush to buy her wedding suit at Sue Van Lean’s. wedding.

* * * *

Belding senior, “I’m a Republican and I intend to vote for Eisenhower because he is the lesser of two evils.”

Ronald Spielmaker, Grand Rapids senior, “I am for Eisenhower because he is less of a politician than is his opponent.

* * * *

According to a summ ary report of the enrollment of Aquinas College lately issued by the Registrar, there are 79 new freshmen — and, however, there are only 79 freshmen women who recently adopted Aquinas as their college, only 25, or less than 25% of the entire class were initiated in last week’s initiation program sponsored by the resident au­diumen.

But, that is so much overlooked and so much disapproved of by the residents of Marian hall in no way help to unify the teaching profession. The free hours are arranged in between classes and so make observation of the different high schools in the city rather difficult.

There are still things which cannot be affected by inflation. Have you stopped

Aquinas students, asked last week about their political preferences in the coming Nov. 4 election, came up with varied answers.

Anton Krizan, junior from Hobart, Ind., believes “Ike” is the man who will stand on his own two feet and not follow the old Republican policies. She believes that Stev­enson would promote many of Trum­an’s programs.

* * * *

If you’ve seen Marge Zettel hobbling around campus, you probably noticed the cause, just place the blame on the National Council of Catholic Women. It seems Margie was caught in a mad rush to buy her wedding suit at Sue Van Lean’s. wedding.

* * * *

Belding senior, “I’m a Republican and I intend to vote for Eisenhower because he is the lesser of two evils.”

Ronald Spielmaker, Grand Rapids senior, “I am for Eisenhower because he is less of a politician than is his opponent.

* * * *

According to a summ ary report of the enrollment of Aquinas College lately issued by the Registrar, there are 79 new freshmen — and, however, there are only 79 freshmen women who recently adopted Aquinas as their college, only 25, or less than 25% of the entire class were initiated in last week’s initiation program sponsored by the resident au­diumen.

But, that is so much overlooked and so much disapproved of by the residents of Marian hall in no way help to unify the teaching profession. The free hours are arranged in between classes and so make observation of the different high schools in the city rather difficult.

There are still things which cannot be affected by inflation. Have you stopped

Aquinas students, asked last week about their political preferences in the coming Nov. 4 election, came up with varied answers.

Anton Krizan, junior from Hobart, Ind., believes “Ike” is the man who will stand on his own two feet and not follow the old Republican policies. She believes that Stev­enson would promote many of Trum­an’s programs.

* * * *

If you’ve seen Marge Zettel hobbling around campus, you probably noticed the cause, just place the blame on the National Council of Catholic Women. It seems Margie was caught in a mad rush to buy her wedding suit at Sue Van Lean’s. wedding.

* * * *

Belding senior, “I’m a Republican and I intend to vote for Eisenhower because he is the lesser of two evils.”

Ronald Spielmaker, Grand Rapids senior, “I am for Eisenhower because he is less of a politician than is his opponent.
Learning, Teaching, Working
Occupy Graduates of 1952

Half of the 1952 Aquinas graduates are teaching or continuing their studies. Among those teaching are Carolyn Tupper, first grade at the Haselt School, Southport; Virginia Vogt, English and Latin at Belding High; Patricia Zahm, fourth grade at Straight School; Lorraine Jarmosco, music at Godwin School; Shirley Waters, music at Godwin School.

alumni news

ENGAGEMENTS:

IT'S A GIRL:

John Edward, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kane (Louise Rode, ex-50), June 8.

Newspaper Article:

One new alumna are working: B.L. Carey for Dun and Bradstreet. Mary Ellen Pickering is working for Western Life Insurance Co.; Wil-

David Clingman is working at Baldwin Products in Kanazawa; Lorraine Bachinski, Robert Rain-
er, ex-51.

er, ex-51.

Three Aquinites have received fellowships. Joseph Gillis and Ger-
el Meke are attending the Uni-

Vincie S. Heins, ex-'52, May 2.

Christine G. Mollie, ex-'53, May 7.

Dubois, Lorraine; and Lloyd Vene-

Wendal Hascher, ex-'59, and Mal-

Veness, ex-52, Oct. 11.

Other new alumna are working: B.L. Carey for Dun and Brad-

John Edward, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kane (Louise Rode, ex-50), June 8.

Newspaper Article:

One new alumna are working: B.L. Carey for Dun and Bradstreet. Mary Ellen Pickering is working for Western Life Insurance Co.; Wil-

David Clingman is working at Baldwin Products in Kanazawa; Lorraine Bachinski, Robert Rain-
er, ex-51.

er, ex-51.

Three Aquinites have received fellowships. Joseph Gillis and Ger-
el Meke are attending the Uni-

Vincie S. Heins, ex-'52, May 2.

Christine G. Mollie, ex-'53, May 7.

Dubois, Lorraine; and Lloyd Vene-

Wendal Hascher, ex-'59, and Mal-

Veness, ex-52, Oct. 11.

Other new alumna are working: B.L. Carey for Dun and Brad-

John Edward, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kane (Louise Rode, ex-50), June 8.

Newspaper Article:

One new alumna are working: B.L. Carey for Dun and Bradstreet. Mary Ellen Pickering is working for Western Life Insurance Co.; Wil-

David Clingman is working at Baldwin Products in Kanazawa; Lorraine Bachinski, Robert Rain-
er, ex-51.

er, ex-51.

Three Aquinites have received fellowships. Joseph Gillis and Ger-
el Meke are attending the Uni-

Vincie S. Heins, ex-'52, May 2.
Pass Flinging Freshmen Out-Flank Fast, Favored Upperclassmen

For the first time in many years the freshmen came out on the long end of a 7 to 2 count in the annual freshman-upperclassman football game. When the idea of a freshman-upperclassman football game started, way back when, it was thought of as an initiation for the freshmen. But it looks as though things got mixed up this year, and the freshmen did a little initiating of their own.

The game was a hard-fought contest. From the opening kick-off, right down to the final play, it was nip and tuck for every yard. The upperclassmen got their two points a little later. Fran Kuberski taking the ball on a surprise pass play, faded to throw, but he faded a little too far and decided to run too late. He was tagged behind the goal for a safety by Bill Despres. In one of the bright spots for the upperclassmen, George Harnes, playing defensive back, intercepted a pass near his own goal line and ran it back to the freshman 15 yard line. The attack bogged down, however, and the upperclassmen failed to score.

Following the game the annual tug of war between the freshmen and the upperclassmen took place. This fine things went normally and the upperclassmen succeeded in bettering the pulling forces of the freshmen. At 2:50 the same day the freshmen coeds trounced the upperclassmen in a volleyball game. Really La Rigo gave the final score 20-11. Agnes Grommons was captain of the freshmen, who led most of the game. Bonnie Giffel was captain of the opposing team. Marry Zettel stopped the game when Cy Bultan was injured. The outstanding player on the winning team was Kit Doran.

Kathryn McConnanagha Hoekstra, 12, awaiting a port call from the army, reads a letter from her husband, M/Sgt. Mel, in which he says he expects her and the children to join him in Augsburg, Germany, by Oct. 20. Dickie, 5 months old, seems pleased at the prospect. The other children are Tommy, 6, front left; Susan, 5, front right; Timmio, 2, rear left; Nora, 4, rear center, and Mary, 5, rear right. Not pictured is Suin, the dog, who the children insist must accompany them.

Freshmen from Distant Lands Relate Varied Experiences

Among the incoming freshmen are Laura Silenieks from Latvia, Herman Ulloa from Guam, and Charles Alkevicius from Lithuania. In 1944 when the Russians invaded Latvia, Laura Silenieks escaped to Germany. She was in Berlin during the Allied bombing: “If you heard an air alarm once a day,” she says, “you called it a quiet day.” Laura attended school in the British zone until 1946, when she came to America. She is taking a pre-journalism course. From far-off Guam comes Herman Ulloa, who is on his first trip to a colder climate. Herman is becoming more familiar with the weather and is awaiting the sight of his first snow. He is majoring in commerce and economics, as is Charles Alkevicius. Charles Alkevicius was born in Lithuania and fled to Germany during the 1944 Russian invasion. He travelled quite a lot during the first year in Germany, but finally settled in Munich until he came to America in 1949. A graduate of Catholic Central, Charles is taking pre-medicine.

Baker Announces Good Prospects For Basketball

Coach Joe Baker, although not committing himself so early in the year, believes that he will have quite a few new boys out for basketball this year. Not to mention, of course, a good deal of material back from last year.

The Grand Rapids prospects are Dick Yahnke, Fred Peters, Tom Bouwhuis, and Al Bieder, all from Central Catholic, and Bruce Bowayers from Creston.

The out-of-town players are Al Dawson, from Flint St. Michael’s; Jack Smith, Muskegon St. Jean’s; John Brown, Detroit Sacred Heart; Bob Turner, Lakeview High; Bob P Madonna, Coaching; Our Lady of Perpetual Help; and Turner Washington, a transfer player from Lincoln university, Jefferson City, Missouri.

Returning from last year will be Lloyd Brown, Roosevelt Smith, Dick Moody, Dave Eddington, Ed Meko, Joe Salvin, Dick Doyle, Mike Endres, and Stan Subia.

Flowers Wattson, ‘49, has returned to the college as secretary to the academic dean. Miss Wattson spent the past three years teaching in New Mexico.