Land Proposes Guild Revision To Improve Student Legislature

"At present the Student Guild is inefficient and outmoded," said Dr. A. C. Land, Guild president, in a recent interview explaining his reasons for promoting amendment of the constitution.

Land said that the actual work of the guild is now being done by an average of 10 people who attend special meetings, but this work is then duplicated at Guild meetings, where an average of 32 students come to exercise their voices. Land said that the present government in the hands of a few, he feels, is not the best for the general good.

Under the Student Senate, which Land is proposing, government would be placed in the hands of 32 students elected by the classes and clubs. Classes would be represented in proportion to their size. The Senate, Land maintains, would be more efficient because it would abolish the two-meeting plan. Meetings will be in the evening, allowing ample time to complete the work.

"The Good Old Days..."

"Be Thankful You're Thriving"

(If answer to those who complain that Aquinas has changed—not the same as it used to be—remember the good, old days.)

Yes, Aquinas has changed. It is different from what it was last year, and the year before, and the year before that. And it will be different next year, and the year after that. Of course, the principles, ideals, and goals upon which our school was founded have not changed; nevertheless the school is different.

But why would it not change? A school is exactly what people are that make it up. Every year some new, and many come. Each person is different—an individual with his own characteristic to bring along to take away with him, or to leave after him. Likewise each time a new group comes in, it brings along its own ideas, fancies, practices.

Now add the fact that the previous year's underclassmen advance to the upperclassmen ranks, and you have the picture after the purchase of another car. This time it's a '54 Plymouth coupe.

Dick O'Malley announced the acquisition of a '54 Plymouth coupe to the future members of the office of the Aquinas Herald and O'Malley Corp. with a sophisticated..."

namin Club Sets Tri-Weekly Meets
Meeting time of the Marian Club has been changed to Mondays every three weeks at 12 noon. Missy in the chapel is followed immediately by a business meet­ing in Room AB 202. These new arrangements were made in an effort to interest more students to attend, according to Marie Schmitt, president.
Plans for a display at the N.F.C.C.S. regional meeting at Aquinas, Feb. 8, were formulated at a meeting Jan. 19 meeting of the Marian Club.
Members of the club have made six requests and placed them in the college chapel for the use of students.
Sedleczy To Address Science Club Tonite
Richard Sedleczy, Aquinas class of '53, is appointed to a graduate stu­dent at the University of Detroit, will address the Science Club this evening at 7:30 at Albertus Hall, on the topic, "Concrete, the Builder." A color movie will be shown in conjunction with his talk, and refreshments will be served.

December Brings Ups, Downs; Tommies Win One, Lose Two

Olivet Pulls Uptset

Drub Ferris, 74-57

The Tommies took their third straight victory, Dec. 10, drubbing Ferris, 74-57.

Aquinas led at the end of every quarter and were never seriously threatened.

The Toms took a 19-14 first period lead and never let up for the next three frames. They kept their point lead 87-72 at the half, and stretched their lead to 13 points at the end of the third quarter, leading 57-44.

Aquinas knew very well that it would be a hard battle to stay on top. Lloyd Brown and Dave Eddington had 10 each.

Lloyd Brown, holding a 28-point average going into the tilt, was completely baffled the Tommies, never let up for the next three frames.

Brown led the scoring column with 21 points, followed with 14 each, while Brown and Solokis tallied 13 and 12 respectively.

Aquinas never knew what hit them. Calvin put on a display of "fight" and "cheering up the boys" is a great incentive in many tough battles.

But this isn't the only way Rosy shows the fans he is a hustler around the court. His all-around playing ability makes him a valuable asset to the team. Rosy has enough speed, agility, and knack of breaking the books to ruin many an opponent's ideas of winning a game.

Good on defense and offense, and a wonderful team player, Rosy is no slouch in the scoring column.

Even though his name may not make headlines every game, he can be relied upon for consistent scoring all the time. To see Rosy break into the double figures is no surprise to Aquinas followers.

Rosy got his prep training at South High School here in Grand Rapids, where he made a name for himself as a regular on the football, basketball, and track teams. After attending Hope College the first semester last year, Rosy transferred to Aquinas the second semester and has since made a hit with everyone who knows him. His happy and friendly attitude is even more apparent off the basketball court.

Rosy terms himself as "165 pounds of walking destruction." This is just another of Rosy's humorous quirks, but we're all very sure his basketball opponents don't take it as a joke.

With a "wooop" and a "oller," Roosevelt Smith, 6'2" and 165 pounds, makes known his presence in the Aquinas basketball games. Other players get a lift when Rosy comes into a game. His continual talk on defense and offense keeps the other men in line. Even the dead-eye accuracy of Lloyd Brown and Dave Eddington doesn't even come close to stave off the Tommies.

Out in front in points was Brown with 21 in his game. Eddington with 16, Solokis with eight, Meko and Moody five apiece, Letherer four, Dillingham two, and Smith finishing with a free toss.

Even the end-of-year accuracy of Lloyd Brown and Dave Eddington doesn't even come close to stave off the Tommies.

Rosy's reserve is himself as "165 pounds of walking destruction." This is just another of Rosy's humorous quirks, but we're all very sure his basketball opponents don't take it as a joke.
