Lambda Iota Tau Establishes Beta Chapter Here, Feb. 4

Four Aquinas students were admitted to Lambda Iota Tau, national literature and foreign language society at the installation of its Beta chapter here Feb. 4. Dr. Warren L. Scoville, chairman of the Michigan state collegiate committee of the executive secretary, gave an installation address, "Literature and Liberal Education as Utilitarian Education".

The new Aquinas members read installation addresses by Mrs. Charles L. Clapp, (Marcia Miller, '50), Mrs. C. W. Lentz, Dr. J. A. Gielow, Sr., and Father Donald Fink.

Dr. Scoville also spoke at the Grand Rapids Breakfast club, Mar. 3. President in Ann Arbor

Dr. Arthur R. Gielow, professor of history and theology; sub-deacon, the Order of Christian Charity in Manitowoc, Wis.

Fr. Charles Popel jokes, "The Glee Club will sing a "Lament" by Peter Huch and "a Prayer to the "Lord" from the Russian Liturgy of Easter by Fr. M. Ignatius", and "Prayer" from Psalms a one-act opera, "Quarrella Rustiana", by Mr. J. P. H. Ballard.

Rosemary Gazella, sophomore from Ionia, will receive highest honors at the convocation for an all-A record for the past two semesters. On the honor roll for maintaining a B average are 22 seniors, 15 juniors, 28 sophomores, and 33 unclassified students.

Mr. J. P. H. Ballard, president of Marian College, was the principal speaker at the Marian Contest. Judges include Dr. Henry E. J. Etcheverry, associate professor of philosophy; Dr. John L. Hart, O.P., associate professor of philosophy and theology.

Lloyd Nets 72 Against Cleary

Team Hits Century Mark in Last Minute

Lloyd Brown, dubbed by newspapers as Aquinas’ “reluctant hero,” but actually the big gun behind the Tommies’ great 1953-54 season, set a new city and state individual collegiate scoring record against Cleary college of Ypsilanti, scoring the astounding total of 72 points as the Toms whipped the Commercial 100 to 45.

Brown’s amazing feat, which broke the all-time Grand Rapids mark of 52 held by Calvin’s Dave Eddington, who set in 1951 against Ovlet, came on Feb. 6, on the Catholic Central court before 300 unbelieving fans. Lloyd amassed 27 field goals and 19 free throws for his huge sum, scoring 18 points in the first quarter, 21 in the second, 23 in the third, and 22 in the final period.

Brown, a senior and four year varsity man for Aquinas, broke the city mark with a goal and a free throw in the first minute of the final quarter, and broke the previous Tom team record later in the period with the 92nd point of the game. Lloyd also hit the city mark in the final minute.

Credit is due, however, to Brown’s teammates, especially Dave Eddington, who fed the Tom star throughout the game.

Aquinas held quarter leads in the game of 23 to nine, 45 to 23, and 66 to 44 at the half 27 to 25, and held a 45-36 opening quarter margin, led at the half 31 to 28. Aquinas held a slim half 31 to 28. Aquinas held a slim

TWO OF 72—Lloyd Brown lays up two points of his huge 72 point total against Cleary college of Ypsilanti to move a step closer to the new city and state scoring record which he set Feb. 6. The Aquinas Toms won the game 100 to 45.

Baker Blasts Officiating At Soo Tech

Poor basketball officiating at Sault Ste. Marie, which finally reached the breaking point during Aquinas’ Feb. 13 trip to the upper peninsula city, prompted a decision by Aquinas athletic director Joe Hamburger to discontinue the sports relationships with Soo Tech’s branch of Michigan Tech.

In the game the same day Soo Tech had walked off the Soo play ground. The Tommies, who had been leading, were in the mainioaining in overtime in protest of highly irregular officiating. The game was part of a reference Bob Rubick and Thr Reque of Masconis. At the time the Tommies had a 54-47 third period advantage. The longhanded Labour of Lloyd Brown and Roy Markovich, Aquinas outscored JC 26 to 11 in the final 10 minutes to notch its 25th win of the campaign.

Aquinas’ 58 points were high for the evening. Ray Mackovich hit his highest mark of the season, pushing in 23 points.

Aquinas’ Gains Title Share

Coach Joe Baker’s Tonnies clinched the co-championship of the City College League by blasting Grand Rapids Junior college 73 to 57 Feb. 6, on the Riders’ home court. It was the second win of the season for Aquinas over JC.

In winning its first title in school history, Aquinas scored three wins against one setback in games with local colleges. Calvin, Olivet, Muskegon City College, and Muskegon CC.

Dear Editor:

This is to suggest to the student body that we should put up a special likeness of Mary, the Mother of Christ, the world's greatest Mother.

Mary symbolizes the sublimity of women, and should be put up in the student hall to be an example of what the students should feel and do. At the same time, the students should feel that Mary is a reflection of themselves.

Your consideration of this matter when forming the Student Senate's new agenda is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Aquinas Herald

Patron of Aquinas Lights Our Way

Since Mar. 7, feast of St. Thomas Aquinas, falls on Sunday this year, Aquinas will celebrate the feast day on Mar. 8. We honor St. Thomas for his great intellect and for his humility. Thomas says that the most important thing is that he had ever read. He admitted that he owed his intellect to God; therefore we are obligated to pay our debt by using it to his highest degree. Maybe we could make a study of the same thing. The more power to us. The man in the Gospel was said to be a man of double talents. We are expected to have the same sort of talents. We are expected to have the same sort of talents. We are expected to have the same sort of talents. We are expected to have the same sort of talents. We are expected to have the same sort of talents. We are expected to have the same sort of talents. We are expected to have the same sort of talents.

To accomplish this aim we must strive to everything that we can possibly get without education. Look knowledge is not the only important good; spiritual and mental opportunities are constantly presenting themselves to be used. If we use education practically, we will live a more complete life. Be collegiate-wise; get the most out of your educational opportunities. St. Thomas did.

Suggestion for the Future

We don't like to quibble over trivialities when there is so much more important things to do with our time. The present time is not as much as focusing on expansion. However, it is the expansion itself which brings to mind that we must make a decision on everything. It is a good opportunity to make a friendship.

An arrangement under the present condition expressed by Mr. Coon are his alone accepted. If the students cooperate as well, there is no reason why there should be a lapse. Too bad we don't speak the same language; it might serve very well if reserved for this purpose outside of lunch hours. (This system has worked very well in one of the other local colleges.)

Without a setup like this type the student must decide between spending his free periods in the library studying or in the Main Union or in the Women's Union. It is Mr. Coon's belief that both, valuable time is lost while he is smoking periods in the library studying or in the Men's Union or the Women's Union. If we begin to make regulations that will be impossible to obey. In our estimation, if a man is capable of using his leisure, he must be able to squeeze everything good that we can from his leisure.

To lend support to this cause, write to Senator Charles Potter, Senate Office Building. Washington, D.C.

Don’t Waste This Time!

Lent is just beginning and we should stop for a few minutes to think of what we are going to accomplish in the coming year. All during the year we are aware of God; we have just to decide to try to develop a deeper love of God, some day to be able to express it. We begin to make resolutions: "What am I going to do this year?" "I’m going to use my time to its best advantage. Now, if you would divide your time, you would have help in that man to whom you have to be sufficient. In our estimation, if a man is capable of using his leisure, he must be capable of expressing a treaty with the best interests of the nation in mind.

Campus is Tremendous: Reporters Interview Visitor

In an exclusive interview gained by our reporter under constant duress of losing of limb, we bring you the personal views of that distinguished man of the theatre, Mr. R. A. Coon. His appearance is familiar to us by his anglicized name, Mr. R. A. Coon. We have always been fascinated by his absence or presence or expression by Mr. Coon are his alone accepted. This is particularly intended for those Aquinas philosophers who maintain a belief in the rationalization of the higher form of man included.

Mr. Coon, what do you think of the present state of the Union?

Ahem, waltz till I wash my hands, son.

'The Theatre is Dying'

Twenty years ago people asked, "Who killed Vaudeville?" Our guess is that it’s the integration of vaudeville and vaudeville... "Our generation is too young to know..."

Then silence fell... What happened?

There is probably numerous reasons: students becoming bored, interference with work, etc. That isn’t enough good. With respect to the present loss of speech department and the talented and able student directors, we all agree on campus, there’s no reason why there should be a lack. Audiences are able to appreciate the aforementioned productions and a long stream of plays, skits, and one-act plays; they are still there.

Perhaps, in the words of Rodgers and Hammerstein, "... the theatre is dying...". The theatre is dying... It’s a need to see the same thing.

Bricker Amendment: For or Against?

This article was only printed in the spirit of playing against. You most certainly should not a letter to the editor, shows such a spirit of sportsmanship that we felt it should be printed.

Edith's Mail Bag

Hello Lloyd,

I age 2

I am going to do... What do you think of the depersonalization of our civilization, sir?

Well, the way I see it, people are too much in a hurry. I can’t blame them. I have to excuse me, son, must wash this wash. You can’t blame them..."

Mr. Coon, would you care to give our readers a "hint" of some sort, to speak of, of our beautiful campus?

Certainly, boy. Certainly. We’ll wash my hands, son. Now, every day, every eye, every eye, every eye - that’s a good one, boy - of your campus..."

Mr. Coon, would you care to give our readers a hint of some sort, to speak of, of our beautiful campus?

Put God's Name In Pledge to Flag

Senator Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) recently introduced legislation to the Senate calling for the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag by adding the words "under God." Ferguson said inclusion of the words "under God" would "highlight one of the real fundamental differences between the free world and the Communist world which is a salient in God." "Spiritual values are every bit as important to the defense and safety of our nation as the material values. Our nation's defense must be defended by spiritual values which are the substantial values of the American people," he declared.

His proposal is identified as Senate Joint Resolution 126 and it was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee for consideration.

To lend support to this cause, write to the Senate Judiciary Committee and voice your approval of this resolution.

Lecturer Says Russian War Not Inevitable

War with Russia is not inevitable, Dr. William Solzbacher, world lecturer and former member of the State Department, told an audience in Greece when he severed relations with Moscow.

That constant change is one reason why war may not come.

Dr. Solzbacher said that Russian aggression has been met and stopped twice during the last major global war. Marshal Tito stopped it in Greece, when he arrived relations with the Soviet Union in 1948. The United Nations stopped aggression in Korea with the first use of an international police force.

In answering questions that continued aid to Yugoslavia, Dr. Solzbacher said that he believed we should continue to aid Tito because Yugoslavia protects Grewe, Hitty, and Tucker from immediate foreign aggression. After spending some time in Yugoslavia, he says the speaker is convinced that the animosity between Russia and Yugoslavia is real.

Lecturers' Club Meets at Aquinas

Grand Rapidas Lecturers' club met at the Aquinas library, Jan. 29, at 8:30 p.m. in the hall. Together with a coffee hour, a business meeting, and a tour by Mrs. Mary Windt.

Among those present were Mr. Donald A. Stahler, world lecturer, Grand Rapids Public Library, and three Aquinas alumni who appeared in library work: Helen Burgstahler of Kalamazoo, Mary Jane Stachowiak, and Julie Deoenna, all of the class of '91.
