Bishop Praises Academic Level At Blessing of New Building

"It is a great consolation to have in the diocese an institution with the scholastic standing and general high reputation which Aquinas enjoys,"Bishop Latum, Bishop of Grand Rapids, said at the blessing of the new administration building, Oct. 11. More than 400 people attended the ceremony, including monsignors and priests of the area, Sisters, members of the faculty and others who were involved in the construction of the building.

The death of Sister Marie Collete has brought shock and grief to her associates and students in the College as well as to the members of the Dominican community in the United States. A Quinn's story was published in the College's newspaper, The AQUINAS HERALD, on November 4, 1955. The piece is titled "A Great Friend Is Lost." The article begins with the sentence: "The plague of the pulpit, horror of horrors—a sermon—and the opening day of pleasant season were the conditions confronting the Rev. James Fitzpatrick, O.P. as he prepared to open the annual men's retreat. Fortified, like all good Irishmen, with a timely sense of humor and a seriousness of purpose, he gave evidence from the Good Shepherd in his hands. He phrased the wild noon vanished behind the turrets, which he presented new light upon those fundamental truths underlying our faith."

The article goes on to discuss the importance of the retreat and the role it plays in the lives of those who participate. It highlights the significance of the events and the impact they have on the individuals involved. The piece concludes with a reflection on the future and the role that such retreats play in the ongoing spiritual journey of the faithful.

The article is written in a thoughtful and reflective tone, capturing the essence of the retreat and its impact on the participants. The language is clear and concise, conveying the importance of the event and its significance in the lives of those who attend. The article is a touching tribute to the memory of Sister Marie Collete and the role she played in the lives of her students and associates.

The AQUINAS HERALD is a monthly newspaper published by the Dominicans of the Province of St. Louis, Missouri. It is a source of news and information for the Dominican community and its readership. The newspaper covers a wide range of topics, including religious, cultural, and community events.

---

The article is an example of how important religious retreats are in helping to foster a deeper understanding of one's faith and spiritual journey. It also highlights the role that such retreats play in the ongoing development of the individual and the community as a whole. The piece is a testament to the power of faith and the importance of reflection and introspection in the spiritual life.
Sermon Stresses Power of Rosary

In spite of drizzle and gray October skies, the faculty and student body marched in procession and stood before the administration building, Oct. 12, to honor Mary Queen of the Rosary. The Rev. T. A. Hanney, O. P., assistant professor of theology and philosophy, in his sermon stressed the power of the Rosary, properly recited. "If we were really to understand and devoutly recite the Rosary, the world would change over night. Love would flourish in a world transformed," the speaker said. In the Rev. Monseigneur's opinion, world peace and love which we must hope for.

The Rosary was brought into the world by St. Francis of Assisi. He stated that as Abelham in the Old Testament went looking for enough just men to build the ark and Sodom and Gomorrha. Our Lady of Fatima is a mother to us and the mother of just people. This may well be the last call for peace in our generation.

Land Prepares Foreign Career

PHOENIX, Arizona — (special) Richard Thomas Land, son of Mrs. Alice Land of 1065 Woodside Ave., Bay City, Michigan, has enrolled as a member of the June, 1956, Class of the American Institute for Foreign Trade at Thundersfield Field, Phoenix, Arizona.

Richard Land

Land attended St. Joseph High School in Bay City and received his B.S. in Foreign Languages from Aquinas College, Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he was vice president and president of the freshman class and a member of Lacerlous Club and the Glee Club.

The course of study at the Institute concentrates on techniques of trade and commerce, administration, foreign languages and characteristics of foreign countries.

French Club Organizes

Return of the French club to the American touch: ice cream, coffee, and election of officers. In addition, a French play was presented.

Meetings will be held Wednesdays at 10:15 in Room 308.

RESULTAT DU SCRUTIN:

Misses: Misses Elizabeth Kanick; Misses Karl; Vice-President, Rita Kolarik; Monseigneur le Secrétaire, Patrick Lalibè; Monseigneur le Trésorier, Clifford Norton.

Choral Club Entertains Local Group

Aquinas choral group, under the direction of F. Peter Sacco, made its first appearance outside the College, Oct. 25 at a meeting of the Holy Spirit Home and School association.

Alfred F. Jamlauch, president of the association and a former student, welcomed the group.

Barbara Konieczyk, junior from Grand Rapids, sang the soprano solo in "Laudate Dominum," and Mr. Sacco sang the duet "Domine Deus," accompanied by Riley Dennewitz, freshman from Saginaw.

These two selections are from the Bach Minor Mass. James Howie, Grand Rapids junior, accompanied the chorus.

The complete program was as follows:
- "Ave Maria"
- "Laudate Dominum"
- "Domine Deus"
- "Alii Amici"
- "Miserere"
- "Ave Maria"
- "Laudate Dominum"
- "Domine Deus"
- "Alii Amici"
- "Miserere"

Am. Chemical Society Discusses Silicates

One Aquinas faculty member and four students were present at the Fall Regional meeting of the newly formed Western Michigan section of the American Chemical Society. The meeting was held in the Calvin College Science Building on Oct. 15.

The Dow Corning corporation of Midland furnished an informative sound film and speaker on the subject, "Laminated Fur c. Materials were available for inspection. A discussion of the topic was held after the film and followed by refreshments.

Aquinas was represented at the meeting by Dr. John Page, who is a member of the society, and Joseph Wisz, Chester Nellett, Robert Turner, and Thomas Bykle, student affiliates. Sr. Virgil, O.P., is also a member of the A.C.S. but was not present at this meeting.
Brown Aids Coach Baker: Many Try for First Team

Coach Joe Baker will be aided this winter by a group of 25 girls new cheerleaders chosen by judges Jim Kelly and Terry McIwady and by two returnees from last year's squad: Jane Engemann, senior from Lansing; and Mary Ellen Sloan, sophomore from Muskegon.

New members of the squad are Mary Ellen Hands, sophomore from Grand Rapids; Barbara Grabruck, freshman from Detroit; Judy Ryan, freshman from Saginaw; Barbara Uzarski, sophomore from Holland, and Madeleine Ranchek, freshman from Grand Rapids.

Each candidate demonstrated group and individual cheers. Results were eight excellent cheerleaders, good substitutions, and a number of schals and pains.

The 20 substitutes organized a Pop Club to raise the school spirit through out Michigan were present. They invite everyone to participate without religious or racial bigotry. They will work with part of the team, setting up competition against the games starters.

Coach Baker optimistically greets his new group and predicts for the high spirits, pride, and promising freshmen at early practices.

Returning letterwinners are Ray Brown, junior, of Cheboygan; Larry Moriarty, and Pete Bishop, Grand Rapids; Bob Pumford, Cheboygan; Al Dawson, Flint; and Art Lee, Grand Rapids.

Probable starters are Jim Vogt, Lansing; Larry Hamser, Battle Creek; John Berent, Bay City; Morris Wangler and Gene Bogie; Chadby, Gray, Jerry Guilbault, Detroit; and Nick Xyon, Ypsilanti.

Baker feels that all records can be broken and this is the year to do it. "All we need is a strong determination, a strong backing by the student body," he says.

Tommys for the first time have a 20-game schedule. New opponents will be Alpena J. C. and Detroit Tech.

Library W ing

Continued from page 1 cal or rare materials as Aquinas or other local libraries can supply, the possibility of inter-library loan is always assured. Arrangements for reprisals, microfilms, and photo- copies are in the making.

As a part of the work of the library are several student librarians, including: Mrs. Ardith Smazel, Kalamazoo; and James Lyon, Lake Odessa. All are juniors.

The Student Library Association is sponsored by the National Conference of College Women and Jews, is to promote better human relations and to explore ways of living together without religious or racial bigotry.

President Speaks at H-S Meetings

B. 2 V., Mrs. Arthur P. Bublowski, president of Aquinas, gave a detailed account of the work of the Lay Teacher in our Schools, at the Home and School meetings of St. Alphonsus, Grand Rapids, Oct. 1; and of St. Jean's, Muskegon, Oct. 8.

At Madonna college, Livonia, he was celebrated of the Solemn High Mass at the meeting of Michigan Chapter of L.F.C.A. on Oct. 22. Mrs. Bublowski attended a meeting of the college presidents of the state held at Michigan State university and a meeting of the Cardinal Cower Days, held at Pocatello, Manistee, Cadillac, and Lansing, Nov. 8 to 11.

Kenneth J. Marin, Public Relations Chairman, will attend Cardinal Days at Kalamazoo, Nov. 15; Muskegon, Nov. 24; and Detroit, Nov. 25.

Brown Aids Coach Baker: Many Try for First Team

Coach Joe Baker will be aided this winter by a group of 25 girls new cheerleaders chosen by judges Jim Kelly and Terry McIwady and by two returnees from last year's squad: Jane Engemann, senior from Lansing; and Mary Ellen Sloan, sophomore from Muskegon.

New members of the squad are Mary Ellen Hands, sophomore from Grand Rapids; Barbara Grabruck, freshman from Detroit; Judy Ryan, freshman from Saginaw; Barbara Uzarski, sophomore from Holland, and Madeleine Ranchek, freshman from Grand Rapids.

Each candidate demonstrated group and individual cheers. Results were eight excellent cheerleaders, good substitutions, and a number of schals and pains.

The 20 substitutes organized a Pop Club to raise the school spirit throughout Michigan were present. They invite everyone to participate without religious or racial bigotry. They will work with part of the team, setting up competition against the games starters.

Coach Baker optimistically greets his new group and predicts for the high spirits, pride, and promising freshmen at early practices.

Returning letterwinners are Ray Brown, junior, of Cheboygan; Larry Moriarty, and Pete Bishop, Grand Rapids; Bob Pumford, Cheboygan; Al Dawson, Flint; and Art Lee, Grand Rapids.

Probable starters are Jim Vogt, Lansing; Larry Hamser, Battle Creek; John Berent, Bay City; Morris Wangler and Gene Bogie; Chadby, Gray, Jerry Guilbault, Detroit; and Nick Xyon, Ypsilanti.

Baker feels that all records can be broken and this is the year to do it. "All we need is a strong determination, a strong backing by the student body," he says.

Tommys for the first time have a 20-game schedule. New opponents will be Alpena J. C. and Detroit Tech.

Library W ing

Continued from page 1 cal or rare materials as Aquinas or other local libraries can supply, the possibility of inter-library loan is always assured. Arrangements for reprisals, microfilms, and photo- copies are in the making.

As a part of the work of the library are several student librarians, including: Mrs. Ardith Smazel, Kalamazoo; and James Lyon, Lake Odessa. All are juniors.

The Student Library Association is sponsored by the National Conference of College Women and Jews, is to promote better human relations and to explore ways of living together without religious or racial bigotry.

President Speaks at H-S Meetings

B. 2 V., Mrs. Arthur P. Bublowski, president of Aquinas, gave a detailed account of the work of the Lay Teacher in our Schools, at the Home and School meetings of St. Alphonsus, Grand Rapids, Oct. 1; and of St. Jean's, Muskegon, Oct. 8.

At Madonna college, Livonia, he was celebrated of the Solemn High Mass at the meeting of Michigan Chapter of L.F.C.A. on Oct. 22. Mrs. Bublowski attended a meeting of the college presidents of the state held at Michigan State university and a meeting of the Cardinal Cower Days, held at Pocatello, Manistee, Cadillac, and Lansing, Nov. 8 to 11.

Kenneth J. Marin, Public Relations Chairman, will attend Cardinal Days at Kalamazoo, Nov. 15; Muskegon, Nov. 24; and Detroit, Nov. 25.

Brown Aids Coach Baker: Many Try for First Team

Coach Joe Baker will be aided this winter by a group of 25 girls new cheerleaders chosen by judges Jim Kelly and Terry McIwady and by two returnees from last year's squad: Jane Engemann, senior from Lansing; and Mary Ellen Sloan, sophomore from Muskegon.

New members of the squad are Mary Ellen Hands, sophomore from Grand Rapids; Barbara Grabruck, freshman from Detroit; Judy Ryan, freshman from Saginaw; Barbara Uzarski, sophomore from Holland, and Madeleine Ranchek, freshman from Grand Rapids.

Each candidate demonstrated group and individual cheers. Results were eight excellent cheerleaders, good substitutions, and a number of schals and pains.

The 20 substitutes organized a Pop Club to raise the school spirit throughout Michigan were present. They invite everyone to participate without religious or racial bigotry. They will work with part of the team, setting up competition against the games starters.

Coach Baker optimistically greets his new group and predicts for the high spirits, pride, and promising freshmen at early practices.

Returning letterwinners are Ray Brown, junior, of Cheboygan; Larry Moriarty, and Pete Bishop, Grand Rapids; Bob Pumford, Cheboygan; Al Dawson, Flint; and Art Lee, Grand Rapids.

Probable starters are Jim Vogt, Lansing; Larry Hamser, Battle Creek; John Berent, Bay City; Morris Wangler and Gene Bogie; Chadby, Gray, Jerry Guilbault, Detroit; and Nick Xyon, Ypsilanti.

Baker feels that all records can be broken and this is the year to do it. "All we need is a strong determination, a strong backing by the student body," he says.

Tommys for the first time have a 20-game schedule. New opponents will be Alpena J. C. and Detroit Tech.

Library W ing

Continued from page 1 cal or rare materials as Aquinas or other local libraries can supply, the possibility of inter-library loan is always assured. Arrangements for reprisals, microfilms, and photo- copies are in the making.

As a part of the work of the library are several student librarians, including: Mrs. Ardith Smazel, Kalamazoo; and James Lyon, Lake Odessa. All are juniors.

The Student Library Association is sponsored by the National Conference of College Women and Jews, is to promote better human relations and to explore ways of living together without religious or racial bigotry.