Three Instructors To Join Teaching Staff in September

Three instructors, including an assistant professor, have been signed to teach at Albion this fall. Sister Mary Virginia, who will be teaching a course of study abroad at that university in fall 1955, has been appointed to the faculty of the Chemistry Department at Albion College in the fall of 1955. She is expected to teach a course in general chemistry, and will replace Sister M. Annette, O.P., head of the Chemistry Department.

Barbara Konczeny, a graduate of the University of Illinois, has also been appointed to Albion College in the fall of 1955. She is expected to teach a course in general chemistry, and will replace Sister M. Annette, O.P., head of the Chemistry Department.

Another instructor, Sister Mary Virginia, will be teaching a course in general chemistry, and will replace Sister M. Annette, O.P., head of the Chemistry Department.

Doris Smith, a graduate of the University of Michigan, has also been appointed to Albion College in the fall of 1955. She is expected to teach a course in general chemistry, and will replace Sister M. Annette, O.P., head of the Chemistry Department.

The opening of the third movement suffered somewhat through lagging vocal resources, but this was more than compensated for by the "Sanctus," which was beautifully performed colorfully as well as vocally and with a touch of the high spots of the evening.

The "Agnus Dei," which often produces discrepancies in pitch, did not suffer that fault in the octave of the soprano and mezzo-soprano.

The rich tones of Miss Garabedian's mezzo-soprano and the "Lux aeterna" stood out like a starved in a ramshackle.

The "Libera me," which is a free composition for soloists and orchestra, was performed with great contrast to the "Dies irae." The movement, with its beauty and quiet resignation, stands in stark contrast to the "Dies irae" which follows it.

Tommies Suffer Six Defeats in Seven Games During Early Baseball Season

In their first home contest, April 16, the Tommies brought along their hitting clothes, but holes in the infield still hampered the underdeveloped pitching corps. Brute Kline opened the mowing for Aquinas.

Aquinas went ast 5-1 on a walk by Bob Dugan, who scored on a fielder's choice by Beatty, and a single ground out by Todd Bierman, who scored on the sacrifice by Bob Wilson before starter Frank Bueche ran into trouble in the bottom of the fourth.

A shaky defense behind Ward pitched for Aquinas. The only runs on three singles, a walk, and a wild pitch, and won the game. The Tommies were 3-0-0. Mary Theresa to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth and Mildred Rieder '58 and Harold WeeTom, Gary West, and John O'Donovan posted a fine 78, but Miss Kelbel was low with an 80.

The Bulldogs tied the score in the third set of the three doubles, shortstop Delong, Maris Stella will be teaching at Holy Rosary Academy in Bay City.

Three of the priests will be teaching theology in Kent County: Fathers Hennessey and Scannan at Nazareth college, Ludovice, and Father Donahue at St. Catherine college. Father English can be contacted during the summer during the summer session.

Monsignor Hukowski and Miss Seward will continue classes at Holy Rosary Academy in Bay City.

Tommies Suffer Six Defeats in Seven Games During Early Baseball Season

With June rolling around, Aquinas college finds itself losing the majority of its best players to the NFL. They are Dick Doyle, John Fuller, Roy Johnson, Bob Kelly, Art Lee, Dick McGough, Dan Pu­nzen, Carlos WeeTom, Gary West, and Bob Wilson.

Aquinas college has been well represented by this set in their four matches, showing good qualities of sportsmanship in inter-collegiate competition.
