Robert Bolts "A Man for All Seasons," performed by the Aquinas drama department November 8th and 9th, is a unique play in the collection of contemporary drama. It is a play written about a saint by a playwright, Sir Peter Shaffer, who calls for admission, a Christian in the meaningful sense of the word. The narrative of the play is the story of Thomas More, whom Bolts calls a hero of self-sacrifice and the man who is a saint. The play is written from More's fight for his ideals. It shows a man who knows how far he can retreat and when he must stay true to his principles.

The Common Man is intended to link the audience with the stage. He is a stage manager and a con­

The students involved - involved in the sufferings of all men, a purchased people; come more intensely involved in Bible Vigils, a form of devotion of Thomas More; a man - a man of great personal integrity of "...and to fill the world and subdue it..." the common man today - of the nation, a purchased people; and refreshments will be served.

The discussion that followed centered around the layman's role as a member of the priesthood of Christ and the Church. It was brought out that the function of the common man today - of the nation, a purchased people; and refreshments will be served.

The discussion that followed centered around the layman's role as a member of the priesthood of Christ and the Church. It was brought out that the function of the common man today - of the nation, a purchased people; and refreshments will be served.

The discussion that followed centered around the layman's role as a member of the priesthood of Christ and the Church. It was brought out that the function of the common man today - of the nation, a purchased people; and refreshments will be served.

The discussion that followed centered around the layman's role as a member of the priesthood of Christ and the Church. It was brought out that the function of the common man today - of the nation, a purchased people; and refreshments will be served.

The discussion that followed centered around the layman's role as a member of the priesthood of Christ and the Church. It was brought out that the function of the common man today - of the nation, a purchased people; and refreshments will be served.

The discussion that followed centered around the layman's role as a member of the priesthood of Christ and the Church. It was brought out that the function of the common man today - of the nation, a purchased people; and refreshments will be served.

The discussion that followed centered around the layman's role as a member of the priesthood of Christ and the Church. It was brought out that the function of the common man today - of the nation, a purchased people; and refreshments will be served.
SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

THE HERALD would like to remind all over 21 year
old citizens to register to vote in the presidential and gubernatorial elections on November 3.

TheHERALD would like to remind all over 21 year
old citizens to register to vote in the presidential
and gubernatorial elections on
November 3.

The HERALD would like to remind all over 21 year
old citizens to register to vote in the presidential
and gubernatorial elections on
November 3.

The HERALD would like to remind all over 21 year
old citizens to register to vote in the presidential
and gubernatorial elections on
November 3.
Major Cooper, do you really think you're going to make it to the moon? was a question asked of Astronaut Gordon Cooper at a press conference at the Lear building, academic developments, and general school activity. The council is made up of the Student Judicial Council, the Student Affairs Committee, the Student Activities Committee, the Student Government Association, and the Student Senate. The council's primary function is to provide a forum for student input and to represent the interests of the student body.

The Aquinas League will hear Dr. Muldoon Heads Council Aquinas Associate Council met Tues., Oct. 27, for its first dinner of the year. The meal was held at 7:30 in the school cafeteria. Dr. Muldoon spoke to the assembly describing his travels in Latin America. New members introduced at the meeting were: Philip de Jong, August Guzzelmueher, David Valenti, Karl Ziesse, Joseph A. Antonucci, and Carl Montgelas.

Dr. James Muldoon is continuing as chairman for another year. He was reelected as chairman.

Students, Faculty Join in Disciplinary Action Students of Aquinas are now beginning to exercise their own disciplinary powers. The Student Senate has been newly organized Student Judicial Board.

Fred Schulke, Chairman of Student Affairs Committee, presented an outstanding organization and procedure to the student body. According to Article VII, Section 3, The Student Judiciary Board shall have "Jurisdiction over maintenance of the standard of conduct of all students, and irresponsible and/or uncooperative behavior in connection with co-curricular events on or off campus."

Students recently chosen as members of the newly formed Student Senate, Max Otto, Vincent Ruggeri, Fred Schulke, and Tom Labarouw, were Gloria Barry, Tom Labarouw, and Maureen Rice.

The Aquinas League will hear Dr. Muldoon Heads Council Aquinas Associate Council met Tues., Oct. 27, for its first dinner of the year. The meal was held at 7:30 in the school cafeteria. Dr. Muldoon spoke to the assembly describing his travels in Latin America. New members introduced at the meeting were: Philip de Jong, August Guzzelmueher, David Valenti, Karl Ziesse, Joseph A. Antonucci, and Carl Montgelas.

Dr. James Muldoon is continuing as chairman for another year. He was reelected as chairman.

Students, Faculty Join in Disciplinary Action Students of Aquinas are now beginning to exercise their own disciplinary powers. The Student Senate has been newly organized Student Judicial Board.

Fred Schulke, Chairman of Student Affairs Committee, presented an outstanding organization and procedure to the student body. According to Article VII, Section 3, The Student Judiciary Board shall have "Jurisdiction over maintenance of the standard of conduct of all students, and irresponsible and/or uncooperative behavior in connection with co-curricular events on or off campus."

Students recently chosen as members of the newly formed Student Senate, Max Otto, Vincent Ruggeri, Fred Schulke, and Tom Labarouw, were Gloria Barry, Tom Labarouw, and Maureen Rice.

The Aquinas League will hear Dr. Muldoon Heads Council Aquinas Associate Council met Tues., Oct. 27, for its first dinner of the year. The meal was held at 7:30 in the school cafeteria. Dr. Muldoon spoke to the assembly describing his travels in Latin America. New members introduced at the meeting were: Philip de Jong, August Guzzelmueher, David Valenti, Karl Ziesse, Joseph A. Antonucci, and Carl Montgelas.

Dr. James Muldoon is continuing as chairman for another year. He was reelected as chairman.

Students, Faculty Join in Disciplinary Action Students of Aquinas are now beginning to exercise their own disciplinary powers. The Student Senate has been newly organized Student Judicial Board.

Fred Schulke, Chairman of Student Affairs Committee, presented an outstanding organization and procedure to the student body. According to Article VII, Section 3, The Student Judiciary Board shall have "Jurisdiction over maintenance of the standard of conduct of all students, and irresponsible and/or uncooperative behavior in connection with co-curricular events on or off campus."

Students recently chosen as members of the newly formed Student Senate, Max Otto, Vincent Ruggeri, Fred Schulke, and Tom Labarouw, were Gloria Barry, Tom Labarouw, and Maureen Rice.
Cheerleaders Prepare For Basketball Opener

"Let's Go Big Toms!" is the familiar cry that can be heard outside the Women's Gym every Tuesday and Thursday at 8:15 p.m., cheer leaders shout for the opening of basketball sea- son.

Cheerleaders tryouts on Oct. 13, the varsity squad is led by captain Bettie Tate, a Grand Rapids senior, who is returning for her fourth year on the basketball sidelines. A graduate of Marywood Academy, Betty is a history major who edits the HERALD.

Returning from last year's var- sity squad in Carolyn Michalski, a biology major from Saginaw, and senior Marianne Zarimba, a senior majoring in business.

Where the Aquinas Bowling League Academy, Bette is a history ma- jor. The league meets to relieve a bit of the ten- sion, she said, and is still not too late, you know, and join up and have some fun. It's open to all students and faculty to participate in all sports and was named to the Detroit FREE PRESS All-State Second Team for basket- ball in 1948.

Mr. Dornbos attended Marquette university, playing basketball there for two years, then transferred to Eastern Michigan univer- sity and earned a B.S. degree with majors in Natural Science and Physical Education. He re- ceived his M.A. from Michigan State, specializing in guidance and counseling. He has also done graduate work at Indiana university. In 1953 Mr. Dornbos established an athletic program at the then-new St. Patrick's High School in Port- land, Mich., and stayed there for a year. In Ferndale, where he taught and coached at St. James High school, he moved to St. Joseph High in St. Joseph, Mich., for two years. In 1958 Mr. Dornbos returned to his home area and coached at North Muskegon High. After two years at North Muskegon, Mr. Dornbos, who has three nights a week free. These are prestige positions and require a car. We will pay qualified men a very comfortable living at Scott's.