A “right” on campus which has caused even more table-talk than “Bat Man,” as among Father Lozier’s seniors, has been the new “Credit and Debit” system.

Our day, be it one of the students or one of the teachers, proves to be unique. Every student is principal to some form of his own spiritual, and socially, in a Previous use as an excise and as a fine for a consideration of the society.

With the Ecumenical Council’s idea of sacrifice has changed. It is not only a thought of helping the poor but of making sure that human dignity and morally good pleasure. It is much more important and much more difficult — to eliminate these habits or feelings which are a hindrance to true Christian love, of God and neighbor.

This, then, is the purpose of Lent — to help each man grow in love.

The Church has provided the Catholics with the season of Lent. In the “good old days” a draft (or draught) of war against social injustice.

Four Strong Winds — dumb-de-dum — d-dum — d-dum — d-dum — d-dum — d-dum. A hot house? a scene from bowie's latest? play the end of a bad day? The answer is no and all wrapped up in one seven-group man ensemble premierly involving the music and the bohemia-annaled, and other areas of note perhaps the push on the same campus.

Labelled temporarily as the "Frequent Majority" this singlet group made it Aquinas debut at the "Checkered Door," held Dec. 4 at Regina Hall, and since then has gone on to bigger and better practices with a number of engagements squeezed in between.

It is all very innocent; the creation of this story, that is. The edition gave the reporter the assignment; the reporter walked the halls, tracking the pre-y, and suddenly, out of the night, found herself pulled out of the darkness into the light, noise, and confusion of the practice session described above. So what could one do but listen, and take copious notes and hope that editor would not ask what she had asked.

"Back Stage With the 'Porchers'"

Most of the people involved had had previous experience singing or playing with a group. The exception, as there always is, is Mary Spreitzer who belonged to a professional singing outfit known as the Red Caros for two years in her homestay of Allegan.

Arrangements of the style and numbers the "Porchers" sing are done by all seven, with each choosing the part they feel suits them best.

Question: What song do you all like? The folk singers decided and each came up with a different Feats of arrow: obvious solution was to form a singing group for which many time-consuming practice sessions, with a variety of "interesting" musicians.

Thus, members were solicited to an "outside" audience, and one was launched, and if so, she had the royalties on all publicity.

The Paulist Father is a modern man who has been an outstanding leader of the modern generation. He is a man of this age, cognizant of the needs of modern men. He is interested in new forms and is pioneering in contemporary ways to work with, for and among the 100 million non-Catholic Americans. He is a missionary to his own people—the American people. He is a man who is willing to fill his mission, is encouraged to call upon him to make an impact on the future of his work. If the vital spark of serving God through man has been ignited in you, why not pursue an investigation of your life as a priest? The Paulist Father is interested in devoting his life to God. He will help you make the most important decision of your life. Write for all the facts.

Starting on a seven game streak the Tommies came out in 1965, as they did in 1964, with tremendous success, they succumbed to the oncoming attack of the hard-hitting Knights, who had won four of their last five games. The Tommies managed to narrow the gap, but fell four runs behind the knights. The final score was 6-1.

Tommies Drop Tourney Encounter

Against Ferris State the Tommies were not to be outdone, as they came away with a 9-8 victory. The Tommies led from the start in the season seems to have affected their power as a unit.

Tom Hinkin in the 1/2, John Haslem in the 300 yd. dash, Dan Gerrity in the 400 yd. dash, and Jim Glowski in the 880 yd. run.

Against such stiff competition the Aquinas squad has already begun its indoor season, which will be followed by an outdoor season.

Tommies Drop Tourney Encounter

The Aquinas Tommies invaded Flint Fieldhouse last Tuesday in the first round of the NAIA Tournament, and nearly threw a cog in the machine with a 6-2 lead. The remaining 20 minutes of play, the reserves rallied behind the 21-point second-half spurt of Paul Jagels in capturing the 89-80 triumph. Ed Hambergross tossed in 22 points.

Against Grace Bible college on Feb. 23, the V's and Yankees again reached the winning column at West-Catholic gym.

Against Ferris State, the Aquinas junior varsity captured three of four contests, the spirited pool toped a fine 11-4 seasonal mark.

J.V.'s Sport 11-4 Season

Due to a late spurt in which the Aquinas junior varsity captured three of four contests, the spirited pool topped a fine 11-4 seasonal mark.

On Feb. 6, the season finale, the reserves put the "frosting on the cake," dumping Grand Valley State 86-76.

Dennis Zavolsky took scoring honors in the Tommies' third straight win over the neighboring Lakers, netting 23 points.

Joe Rumler added 21 points, and Paul Jagels and Ed Hambergross teamed up for 35 points, 18 and 17 respectively.

J.V.'s Sport 11-4 Season

With the advent of March, Aquinas' spring sports are already in full swing. Heading the seasonal onslaught is the track team, the first of its kind to invade the campus.

With Calvin on one point, they overpowered the Knights in the Evangelistic, Butterfly, Individual Medley and Diving.

Against Grace Bible college on Feb. 23, the V's and Yankees again reached the winning column at West-Catholic gym.

Four players reached double figures in the 79-60 decision, with Gary Wagers hitting for 17 and Ed Hambergross 15.

On Feb. 26, the season finale, the reserves put the "frosting on the cake," dumping Grand Valley State 86-74.

In addition to these skills, "Stein" brings to every game an invaluable asset to any team.

Under the direction of Coach Derdos the squad has already begun its indoor season, which will be followed by an outdoor season.

Against such competition as Wayne State and Spring Arbor, the Tommies offer a nucleus consisting of five-time Grand Rapids singles champ, should prove quite formidable.

Finish last season with a 10 pt. average, Tom is currently hitting at a 15.9 pace—a marked improvement. His high game was a 26 pt. effort against Alma.

In addition to these skills, "Stein" brings to every game an invaluable asset to any team.
