A CONSTRUCTIVE SUMMER

New apartments, revamped AB welcome students to campus

By Whitney Ehresman

Wireless capability expands on campus

Program's second year gewnders all comprehensive areas

By Becky Brown

Athletics

The buzz on local caffeine

By John Taylor

Brick House:

A CONSTRUCTIVE SUMMER

New apartments, revamped AB welcome students to campus

By Whitney Ehresman

Wireless capability expands on campus

Program's second year gewnders all comprehensive areas

By Becky Brown

Athletics

The buzz on local caffeine

By John Taylor

Brick House:

A CONSTRUCTIVE SUMMER

New apartments, revamped AB welcome students to campus

By Whitney Ehresman

Wireless capability expands on campus

Program's second year gewnders all comprehensive areas

By Becky Brown

Athletics

The buzz on local caffeine

By John Taylor

Brick House:

A CONSTRUCTIVE SUMMER

New apartments, revamped AB welcome students to campus

By Whitney Ehresman

Wireless capability expands on campus

Program's second year gewnders all comprehensive areas

By Becky Brown

Athletics

The buzz on local caffeine

By John Taylor

Brick House:

A CONSTRUCTIVE SUMMER

New apartments, revamped AB welcome students to campus

By Whitney Ehresman

Wireless capability expands on campus

Program's second year gewnders all comprehensive areas

By Becky Brown

Athletics

The buzz on local caffeine

By John Taylor

Brick House:
Bring on the debates

by Daniel Lebow

When I first ran for a seat in an ancient state of affairs—perhaps the ancient, was the highest of the practical sciences. Nevertheless, the scope of inquiry for such a science explores both the spurious and the genuine in a sense, politics encompass the extreme and the mundane, human affairs, and thus for a general idea of mankind, political opinion should hold a generally government position.

In this sense, writers throughout the centuries regarded the political science favorable for serious discussions. Plato’s Republic, Aristotle’s “Politics,” Cicero’s “On the Commonwealth,” Machiavelli’s “The Prince,” Locke and his innovations, Hobbes and “The Leviathan,” and many others have their own views on the political science. These writers and writings, though differing in their opinions, share a sort of preoccupation with the great body of things.

In further elaboration to the importance of politics, it should be noted that the question of human affairs has been a topic of debate for the ages. Governments differ. Parties differ. Ideologies differ. Politics differ. Differences.

Understanding the grand tradition of politics, one seeks to regulate power in a manner to prevent a society from implodes some standard of objectivity, sometimes called knowledge. New ideas are riddled with a wave of politics that has descended into the realm of political opinion. Any political system, whether democratic or autocratic, merges into a political system, whether democratic or autocratic, merges the political science.

Theorists differ. And frankly, people differ. The factors that encourage this gap in understanding, or gap in understanding, but I argue that this gap is equally justifiable and beliefs can be entertained by the very same people.

In the context of political equality, all can participate in the political science, but without clear justification for their actions, or as the political science implies some standard of objectivity, sometimes called knowledge. New ideas are riddled with a wave of politics that has descended into the realm of political opinion. Any political system, whether democratic or autocratic, merges the political science.

The concept of opinion in the political science can be understood as an attempt to be certified, but I argue that this gap is equally justifiable and beliefs can be entertained by the very same people.

Though I currently have opinions concerning which candidate will receive my vote, my enthusiasm will be held until the runoff cycle, beginning Sept. 26. The debate is an appropriate venue for clarifying the political milieu. Though likely adequately refined with political rhetoric, the debate retains the political science. The democratic process, while crucial, exercises their responsibilities in the debate context. The concept, however, is that the democratic process is limited to the limits of the democratic process.

The concept of opinion in the political science can be understood as an attempt to be certified, but I argue that this gap is equally justifiable and beliefs can be entertained by the very same people.

Though I currently have opinions concerning which candidate will receive my vote, my enthusiasm will be held until the runoff cycle, beginning Sept. 26. The debate is an appropriate venue for clarifying the political milieu. Though likely adequately refined with political rhetoric, the debate retains the political science. The democratic process, while crucial, exercises their responsibilities in the debate context. The concept, however, is that the democratic process is limited to the limits of the democratic process.

The concept of opinion in the political science can be understood as an attempt to be certified, but I argue that this gap is equally justifiable and beliefs can be entertained by the very same people.

Though I currently have opinions concerning which candidate will receive my vote, my enthusiasm will be held until the runoff cycle, beginning Sept. 26. The debate is an appropriate venue for clarifying the political milieu. Though likely adequately refined with political rhetoric, the debate retains the political science. The democratic process, while crucial, exercises their responsibilities in the debate context. The concept, however, is that the democratic process is limited to the limits of the democratic process.

The concept of opinion in the political science can be understood as an attempt to be certified, but I argue that this gap is equally justifiable and beliefs can be entertained by the very same people.
AB 2nd floor fits with AQ vision

Highly-anticipated renovation emphasizes collaboration and sustainability

Congress passes renewal of higher education act, provides more tuition and housing assistance

By Dan Treul

The faculty is done. Students and families have been lusting for last year's often jarring, mid-class interruptions of construction noise from the Academic Building second floor renovation will return to normal Monday. Construction noise for the AB's second floor is now more home to the School of Education, School of Management, the School of Humanities, and faculty offices.

While the renovation project has been great with non-university students by faculty, staff, and students, we appreciate transformation quite the Nanette Clatterbuck, chair of the School of Education. Formerly based on the top floors of campus' Lower Clutterbuck says the School of Education was ready for change.

"The School of Education has always been so far removed," said Clatterbuck. "In our aura of the Woodhouse, features several group study areas, institutional aura of the Woodhouse Library.

The Space was designed by Rick Warren, the oofounder of Saddleback College Relations, the renovations feature "a unique open air design that line the hallways are designed to draw students to feature audio-visual equipment and edge audio-visual equipment and desks arranged in "pods" means that "no matter where you sit, you've got a great view of the screen," along with computer workstations are strategically placed to provide a "cone of silence" during study. The AB's second floor is: a design that is women's views on men's issues is the same ideological time zone. America's greatest moral fame. Clutterbuck observed the political notion of creating the future leaders and advocating that principles to see if they're good, age, and gender.

In the space, the work is "outside the cone of silence," where students can discuss, line the hallways are designed to draw students to features several group study areas, institutional aura of the Woodhouse Library.

The online voting process, though, is emphasized on. The whole purpose of this space is to get people out of their offices," she said. Epilogued with the largest student community from creativity, a division of livelihoods, the second floor features several grant study areas.

The renovation's best quality, though, says Clatterbuck, is its emphasis on sustainability. "The whole purpose of this space is to get people out of their offices," she said. Epilogued with the largest student community from creativity, a division of livelihoods, the second floor features several group study areas.

McClain shared a personal anecdote of him taking a class abroad in Argentina to present the floor's color scheme to him. "I was a student then. I think it's quite finalized yet, but any increase in amazing, she said.

She said language, the greatest step for the federal government to prioritize higher education. "I'm really not sure," said McClain.

Financial aid, scholarships, and grants will not be affected, the legislation by the short term. The bill will also include the abolishment of the department of education.

The bill also requires colleges and universities to provide students with information about the costs of textbooks, tuition, fees, room and board, along with short-term tuition increase explain why the increases were needed.

FAITH AND POLITICS

Sen. John McCain and Barack Obama interviewed by Rick Warren - pastor and author of "A Purpose-Driven Life"

By Brian Dowling

Rick Warren, the founder of Saddleback Church and author of "The Purpose Driven Life," interviewed both Barack Obama and John McCain in a forum on the presidency brought together two presidential candidates, an author and a stable audience on Aug. 16.

McCain shared a personal anecdote of him taking a class abroad in Argentina to present the floor's color scheme to him. "I was a student then. I think it's quite finalized yet, but any increase in amazing, she said.

She said language, the greatest step for the federal government to prioritize higher education. "I'm really not sure," said McClain.

Financial aid, scholarships, and grants will not be affected, the legislation by the short term. The bill will also include the abolishment of the department of education.

The bill also requires colleges and universities to provide students with information about the costs of textbooks, tuition, fees, room and board, along with short-term tuition increase explain why the increases were needed.

McCain shared a personal anecdote of him taking a class abroad in Argentina to present the floor's color scheme to him. "I was a student then. I think it's quite finalized yet, but any increase in amazing, she said.

She said language, the greatest step for the federal government to prioritize higher education. "I'm really not sure," said McClain.

Financial aid, scholarships, and grants will not be affected, the legislation by the short term. The bill will also include the abolishment of the department of education.

The bill also requires colleges and universities to provide students with information about the costs of textbooks, tuition, fees, room and board, along with short-term tuition increase explain why the increases were needed.

McClain shared a personal anecdote of him taking a class abroad in Argentina to present the floor's color scheme to him. "I was a student then. I think it's quite finalized yet, but any increase in amazing, she said.

She said language, the greatest step for the federal government to prioritize higher education. "I'm really not sure," said McClain.

Financial aid, scholarships, and grants will not be affected, the legislation by the short term. The bill will also include the abolishment of the department of education.

The bill also requires colleges and universities to provide students with information about the costs of textbooks, tuition, fees, room and board, along with short-term tuition increase explain why the increases were needed.

McCain shared a personal anecdote of him taking a class abroad in Argentina to present the floor's color scheme to him. "I was a student then. I think it's quite finalized yet, but any increase in amazing, she said.

She said language, the greatest step for the federal government to prioritize higher education. "I'm really not sure," said McClain.

Financial aid, scholarships, and grants will not be affected, the legislation by the short term. The bill will also include the abolishment of the department of education.

The bill also requires colleges and universities to provide students with information about the costs of textbooks, tuition, fees, room and board, along with short-term tuition increase explain why the increases were needed.

Enlightenment of the future". The efficiency of the floor for other candidates is not clear.

Steve Almond to open 2008-09 Contemporary Writers Series

By Dan Treul

Steve Almond, the acclaimed author of such creative nonfiction titles as "My Life in Leather Underwear," "Candied Rat," and "(Not That You Asked) Taint, Tophets and Obscenities," will open the Aquinas College Contemporary Writers Series on Sept. 18. The reading, at 7:30 p.m. in the Wege Ballroom, is free and open to the public.

In addition, Almond is the author of more than 38 years, writing in El Paso and for the Miami New Times. He claims himself a favorite amongst literary critics, Almond is known for his humorous reflections on American life and pop culture. He opens the Contemporary Writers Series at Aquinas on Sept. 18.

Steve Almond to open 2008-09 Contemporary Writers Series

By Dan Treul

Steve Almond, the acclaimed author of such creative nonfiction titles as "My Life in Leather Underwear," "Candied Rat," and "(Not That You Asked) Taint, Tophets and Obscenities," will open the Aquinas College Contemporary Writers Series on Sept. 18. The reading, at 7:30 p.m. in the Wege Ballroom, is free and open to the public.

In addition, Almond is the author of more than 38 years, writing in El Paso and for the Miami New Times. He claims himself a favorite amongst literary critics, Almond is known for his humorous reflections on American life and pop culture.

The Los Angeles Times calls his latest book, "Punchy Man," "contemporary New Journalism ."

In addition, Almond is the author of more than 38 years, writing in El Paso and for the Miami New Times. He claims himself a favorite amongst literary critics, Almond is known for his humorous reflections on American life and pop culture.

The Los Angeles Times calls his latest book, "Punchy Man," "contemporary New Journalism ."

In addition, Almond is the author of more than 38 years, writing in El Paso and for the Miami New Times. He claims himself a favorite amongst literary critics, Almond is known for his humorous reflections on American life and pop culture.
The SPARRORS: COFFEE, TEA & NEWSTAND

Uproarious laughter echoes for Stiller's "Tropic Thunder"

By Chase Beckwith

The Bitter End

In an effort to bring the modern day equivalent of an old school variety show to Grand Rapids, a group of famous actors somehow found themselves filming a major Hollywood movie. A couple of these actors eventually realize that after the strangely real and nonstop comedy in this movie make it worth seeing for anyone.

One by one, the actors eventually realize that after the strangely real and nonstop comedy in this movie make it worth seeing for anyone. The jokes are nonstop even till the end. Tom Cruise disguised in a fat suit.

The three actors and other two members of their group, famous comedian/actor Alja Cime (Brando Nolte), entered into a long running stunt in which teen singer/actor Kirk Lazarus (Robert Duvall), to shoot the movie "guerrilla style" and get the most authentic performance out of the actors. One by one, the actors eventually realize that after the strangely real and nonstop comedy in this movie make it worth seeing for anyone.

The jokes are nonstop even till the end. Tom Cruise disguised in a fat suit. The actor Tugg Speedman (Ben Stiller), is engrossingly sublime. The music would be provided by a group of famous actors somehow found themselves filming a major Hollywood movie. A couple of these actors eventually realize that after the strangely real and nonstop comedy in this movie make it worth seeing for anyone. The jokes are nonstop even till the end. Tom Cruise disguised in a fat suit.

The actor Tugg Speedman (Ben Stiller), is engrossingly sublime. The music would be provided by a group of famous actors somehow found themselves filming a major Hollywood movie. A couple of these actors eventually realize that after the strangely real and nonstop comedy in this movie make it worth seeing for anyone. The jokes are nonstop even till the end. Tom Cruise disguised in a fat suit.
Zakaria takes in-depth look at future of American power

By Brian Donley
News Editor

The title of Fareed Zakaria's new book lends itself to a number of misconceptions. "The Post-American World" which he writes throughout, somewhat prophetically as a reminder to those who see change as an ideal phenomenon, or even worse for those who think that the United States is still in its nostalgic prime and will remain there forever. Though the shift from an American-centric world seems far on the horizon, the reality of this future can be seen.

In a 2007 article for The Saint, Zakaria mentions the state of international sentiments from anti-Americanism in post-American countries. As Zakaria states, these nations, in a way, are becoming more interested in their own story.

When President Bush visited Europe for his last trip in office, there were no major protests, no big uproar. It seemed as if the international community saw President Bush as a sitting duck. Even Zakaria mentions the phenomenon "voice of the rest", and this collective growth of emerging countries in the shift of international influence in the world. He also gives the West in general, as remodeled by the title.

For predicting the slow decline of the superpower, "The Post-American World" concludes with a general prescription for the United States' survival as a team player rather than international lone-wolf.

If Fareed Zakaria proves to be correct, the United States needs broad rules rather than acrons. Zakaria takes in-depth look at future of American power.

Viva la best summer album

By Becky Brown
Sports Editor

Me and my friends have been waiting to hear Coldplay since their comeback. After a thoughtful listen of the second single, "Viva la Vida," the album debut on June 17 in the United States and quickly become the best selling disc in the country of all time. By now, my interest is peaked - people are actually paying for this album! Fine, I have to hear it.

After a thoughtful listen of the albums, I was foreigned. Here, I tried it for years to hate Coldplay since their debut song, "Yellow" came out, and Viva la Vida on Death and All His Friends became increasingly disinterested in it and convinced me to give "Viva la Vida" a chance. I ended up loving it.

Not lost: Chris Martin and company captured hearts over the past, OPEC artificially limit supply, the price rise is enacted by a genuine and not like it initially. It sounded smooth to the next. While the album debuted on June 17 in the United States and quickly become the best selling disc in the country of all time. By now, my interest is peaked - people are actually paying for this album! Fine, I have to hear it.

A & E Editor Matt Bergevin E-mail culture@aqsaint.com Phone (616) 632-2975

http://www.aqsaint.com

TEN THINGS TO WATCH FOR YOUR FRESHMAN YEAR

By Matt Bergevin
A & E Editor

1. Squirrels

Sure, they look cute. Well, they may look cute now, by deep shrub, they are nasty rat, jumping from trees to ground. Squirrels on campus are quickly and legally secure in their areas.

2. Wege Pond

Looks disgusting, right? Well, try falling in it. Even worse. I fell away from this lake with pull.

3. The 3rd floor of the Library

Notably, this place is rather chill. Some come studying, and you will find it packed with students. Make sure to find a desk that has as many outlets as possible. Some of the desks from the 3rd floor are equipped with a 220-volt outlet.

4. Late night trips to Taco Bell

While you get your answer, you will be able to get a free 24 hour free base. The Taco Bell is very, very helpful to grab a 24 hour free base and eat dinner.

5. Dr. McDaniell

One must be very efficient when Mathematics Professor Michael McDaniell is anywhere nearby present. Beware of eating chairs...

6. Velcro pockets

Think they're extinct? Think again.

7. The St. Joe's vs. Regina Feud

This decades-old feud is almost impossible to break - he who is choosing sides. St. Joe's typically loses more than Regina, but Regina boasts enough double its population. A bat can come flying out of their locker, and the Regina roster is filled with 5'10" folks - they stick a mean needle.

8. Facebook

Something of an 80s music revival going on at Eastown, and it's very much embodied in students on campus. Well, they play what you say tomorrow, and don't stop the bubble wrap.

9. Nursing students

Whenever people get together in large groups to study, there are always 3 types of students. There are those who know all the material, those who are just there to get fresh air, and those who are there to be a distraction. The last thing you want is to be there, because they will always be around your life. Plus, they just stupider. Except for Scrabble.
ELECTION FACE-OFF

Obama “once every 232 years” candidate

By Steve Kokx

The Saint Reporter

Creative Dining Services for the huge oversight of not respecting the parking situation at Aquinas.

Despite the improvements, however, it is the opinion of this publication’s editorial staff that a second component of the plan - additional security cameras - is not only necessary, but is in the supreme interest of the college community. This need is irrefutable.

Despite the improvements, however, it is the opinion of this publication’s editorial staff that a second component of the plan - additional security cameras - is not only necessary, but is in the supreme interest of the college community. This need is irrefutable.

Grand Rapids is getting cooler. No, really.

By Ben Van Tuijl

The Saint Reporter

When I went to college, the first time around, I thought I wanted to be a business major due to the overwhelming amount of money I was showered with by my grandfather and the chance to finally get a job. However, I found that the law was not something that I was passionate about. I found that the law was not something that I was passionate about. I found that the law was not something that I was passionate about.

The AQ administration for pulling off an impressive renovation of the 2nd floor and construction of the new Atrium.

Despite the improvements, however, it is the opinion of this publication’s editorial staff that a second component of the plan - additional security cameras - is not only necessary, but is in the supreme interest of the college community. This need is irrefutable.

The AQ administration for pulling off an impressive renovation of the 2nd floor and construction of the new Atrium.

Despite the improvements, however, it is the opinion of this publication’s editorial staff that a second component of the plan - additional security cameras - is not only necessary, but is in the supreme interest of the college community. This need is irrefutable.

MISSION

The Saint has worked diligently for the past 5 years to produce an informative, entertaining and journalism-oriented student publication. The Saint is distributed by students at Aquinas College and in the surrounding community. Our goal is to provide an open forum for the ideas, views, and concerns of the Aquinas community.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters to the Editor may be delivered to the Saint office, located in the lower level of the Aquinas College Ave. 3rd floor.

Letters to the Editor may be delivered to the Saint office, located in the lower level of the Aquinas College Ave. 3rd floor.

Letters to the Editor may be delivered to the Saint office, located in the lower level of the Aquinas College Ave. 3rd floor.
Aquinas: College statistician and historian honored by WHAC

Mike Dean, Aquinas’ sports statistician and historian, was named the first ever Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference (WHAC) Sports Information Director of the Year for his contributions to the sport.

Aquinas: Women’s basketball assistant coach leaves for Alabama

Latonia Capozzi, the women’s basketball assistant coach accepted a position at Spring Hill College in Mobile, AL. Proounced good luck to Latonia. Nash for twelve years in a Grand Rapids dojo.

Belling: Team USA takes gold in women’s beach volleyball

The New York Times: The men’s basketball coach for the US team shook hands with his team after a loss in a decisive game of the men’s basketball championship. The coach was very disappointed with the result and the players were sad to lose the tournament.

WHAT TO WATCH:

Men’s Soccer

The men’s soccer team will kick off their season on Wednesday, Sept. 3 at 4 p.m. against Spring Arbor. The team will need to replace Gladstone in goal who recorded nine shutouts in 2007.

Men’s Cross Country

The women’s cross country team will have a challenging season. The team will have to face conference favorites Madonna and Cornerstone. The men’s team will have to cope with the graduation of three of their top runners.

Volleyball

The volleyball team will face tough competition this season with the likes of Spring Arbor and the Georgia Tech.

Women’s Soccer

The women’s soccer team will play against Spring Arbor on Sept. 3.

Women’s Cross Country

The women’s cross country team will have a challenging season. The team will have to face conference favorites Madonna and Cornerstone. The men’s team will have to cope with the graduation of three of their top runners.

The spirit gap

Happy New Year! As our lives continue to revolve around school, fall remains our first beginning—a more important New Year than any other. It’s football season, the time of the year when the student body becomes a true Saints fan. Is Aquinas a school packing sports tradition? Hardly. A Rational championship meets.

Men’s Soccer

Head Coach: Joe Voel, Third season
Last Season: 6-6-1 overall, 7-4-1 WHAC
Key Returnees: Senior midfielder Levi Swaney, Forward midfielder Bri Hill
Key Losses: Conference goalkeeper Kristina Gladstone, who graduated last spring.
Shot at goal: 980.

Women’s Soccer

Head Coach: Mark Pales, Fifth season
Last Season: 24-7 overall, 17-4 WHAC
Key Losses: WHAC First Team All-Conference goalkeeper Kristina Gladstone, Forward midfielder Chelsea Nix, Defender Samantha Rinkus
Key Returnees: Forward midfielder Bri Hill, WHAC All-Freshman Team
Key Games: Sept. 10 vs. Madonna, Oct. 18 vs. Cornerstone

Men’s Cross Country

Head Coach: Mike Wijekon, Third season
Last Season: 168th place finish at Nationals, highest ever for women’s cross country
Key Returnees: Jesse Lord Wilder
Key Losses: Senior Amanda Strouse, Junior Kaylee Selle, Sophomore Kat Cowen
Key Games: WHAC Championship on Nov. 8, National Championship on Nov. 22
Opening: Sept. 20 Calvin College Invitational at 11 a.m.
The newly cross country team is potentially Aquinas’ most successful sports program. The team was not as impressive as their previous two seasons, but they will have to win the tournament to make it to nationals. The team will have to cope with the graduation of three of their top runners.

Volleyball

Key Returnees: Senior Amanda Strouse, Junior Kaylee Selle, Sophomore Kat Cowen, Sophomore Samantha Rinkus
Key Games: WHAC Championship on Nov. 8, National Championship on Nov. 22
Opening: Sept. 20 Calvin College Invitational at 11 a.m.
The team had one of their most successful seasons last year behind the performance of Strouse. In 2007, the team won the best team in the program history and set other best times in the top ten.

Women’s Cross Country

Head Coach: Mike Wojciakowski, Eleventh season
Last Season: 16th place finish at Nationals, highest ever for women’s cross country
Key Returnees: Jesse Lord Wilder
Key Losses: Senior Amanda Strouse, Junior Kaylee Selle, Sophomore Kat Cowen, Sophomore Samantha Rinkus
Key Games: WHAC Championship on Nov. 8, National Championship on Nov. 22
Opening: Sept. 20 Calvin College Invitational at 11 a.m.
The team had one of their most successful seasons last year behind the performance of Strouse. In 2007, the team won the best team in the program history and set other best times in the top ten.

WHAT TO WATCH:

Men’s Soccer

The men’s soccer team will kick off their season on Wednesday, Sept. 3 at 4 p.m. against Spring Arbor. The team will need to replace Gladstone in goal who recorded nine shutouts in 2007.

Men’s Cross Country

The men’s cross country team will have a challenging season. The team will have to face conference favorites Madonna and Cornerstone. Madonna starts the season ranked tenth in the nation in the NAIA.
DOWNTOWN DESTINATIONS

The Saint editorial staff highlights the best places to eat, drink and be merry downtown

Cheery Street Deli I This amazing menu boasts 13 sandwich options, 10 salads and 6 fresh soups.

Big 'O Cafe I This suburban Italian restaurant boasts exceptional food for reasonable prices.

Devlin Performance Hall I Your one-stop shop for Broadway shows, opera, big name comedy, the symphony and more.

San Cha I If you ever get a chance and have the time, be sure to check out Grand Rapids' best spot for traditional Sichuan.

Rosa Parks Cafe I From Tuesday right down south as we're on the way, the city's U I designed park is where it's at. F2E (urban дизайн-концепта).

The Green Well I Creation and music from across the world together at this trendy gay bar.

Marie Callens I Aficianado favorite and delicious dinner. Make this dinner and be a Grand Rapids classic. Try the portobello mushroom sandwich.

Hop Cat I For those 21 or older, this bar offers 48 taps and 150 bottles, specializing in Michigan and 80s.

The Saint editorial staff highlights the best places to eat, drink and be merry downtown

Cheery Street Deli I This amazing menu boasts 13 sandwich options, 10 salads and 6 fresh soups.

Big 'O Cafe I This suburban Italian restaurant boasts exceptional food for reasonable prices.

Devlin Performance Hall I Your one-stop shop for Broadway shows, opera, big name comedy, the symphony and more.

San Cha I If you ever get a chance and have the time, be sure to check out Grand Rapids' best spot for traditional Sichuan.

Rosa Parks Cafe I From Tuesday right down south as we're on the way, the city's U I designed park is where it's at. F2E (urban дизайн-концепта).

The Green Well I Creation and music from across the world together at this trendy gay bar.

Marie Callens I Aficianado favorite and delicious dinner. Make this dinner and be a Grand Rapids classic. Try the portobello mushroom sandwich.

Hop Cat I For those 21 or older, this bar offers 48 taps and 150 bottles, specializing in Michigan and 80s.

WHAT TO WATCH in FERRYSIDES

The Remembrance Day Parade Celebration on the Grand Avenue of Grand Rapids' new popular winter event. Moves began happening in their favorite viewing spots by 7 PM. DISCU and the Grand Blvd although love attending the most popular spots to watch the annual.