Now PAGING Dr... AQ and MSU broker a sweet deal

By Benjamin Helmack
Managing Editor

E fter Dr. Martha Lombard, President of Randolph College (Virginia), announced last week that she would be leaving Randolph at the end of this year, the search for the college’s next president was on. Lombard, who has been the president of Randolph since 2011, is stepping down due to retirement. The college’s Board of Visitors has launched a nationwide search for Lombard’s replacement.

Randolph is not the only college or university that has recently undergone a leadership transition. Grand Valley State University’s (Michigan) President, Thomas J. Foote, also announced his retirement earlier this year, after 12 years leading the institution. With many college and university leaders nearing retirement, the search for new presidents has become a priority for institutions across the country.

By Monica Rischiotto

AQ at the forefront of High Schoolers’ College applications

Last week two unfamiliar faces paid their visits to Aquinas College with a full day of scheduled events including multiple interviews, tours, and a presentation as they visited the primary campus of the college’s../Chair of Students.

During their individual visits, both candidates began their encounters with a group interview consisting of a selection of faculty and staff, which was followed by a second group interview consisting exclusively of students. In addition to these interviews, the candidates were provided with a quick tour of campus by a Student Ambassador, lunch afterwards, and were sent to the Wege Ballroom to give a presentation on “What It Means to be the Dean of Students at a Catholic, Liberal Arts college” with students facilitating their presentation in the room.

Dr. Anne Lombard was the first candidate to visit campus on Monday, October 25. During her visit, Lombard introduced her qualifications and experience in higher education to the audience, in various positions at Ohio State University from 1998 and currently serves as the school’s Assistant to the Vice President for Special Projects. She is a native of the Midwest, receiving her undergraduate degree and graduate degree from Western Michigan University and Michigan State University, respectively, and received her Ph.D. in Higher Education at Ohio State University. In her introductory comments, she noted that the institution of higher education for 20 years, specifically in the areas of student affairs, residence life, and first year programs. She has worked at a diverse mix of institutions including Loyola University (New Orleans), Loyola Valley State University, and Creighton University.

After being introduced early to MSU students, the presentation will be followed by an event/closed and complete program of meeting and networking experience. In the closing comments, Dr. Lombard will be joined by representatives from student organizations to give an overview of our charism of service, faculty and staff collaboration as well as food cooperatives, and mentor programs in accordance to our charism of service, faculty and staff collaboration as well as opportunities for students.

Lombard, a senior going to work in clinical and service experiences’. In her presentation, Dr. Lombard emphasized, “I am not looking for a mentor, and to be a mentor, and the importance of building relationships in order to accomplish all of these responsibilities. But to check-in and confirm, Lombard’s question and answer session was held.

Three important candidates, the final candidate, Dr. Gayle Kastendick, who will be the visiting campus on Campus tours are scheduled for November 2 in the morning. The College of Arts, Sciences and Letters and the College of Business Administration will continue on Monday, November 5. Students are encouraged to attend the events.

Contemporary Writers Series
Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Wege Ballroom to give a presentation on poetry for its students.

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

By Monica Rischiotto

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Check it out... Dan Gediman
Editor of "This I Believe" to speak at Aquinas

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8

One step closer... Aquinas welcomes three Dean candidates to campus

Contemporary Writers Series: Celebrated American poet, Mark Jarman, visits AQ

Parking Tickets 101 3 Men's Soccer clinches WHAC title 8
Domestic Abuse Awareness Week a success

By Bridget Salisz

The Aquinas College Jazz Band will be hosting a Fall Jazz Night on November 11th at the Donnelly Center. The event opens to the public at 7:30pm.

The event have been composed by Dr. Fred Brewer, the director of the Jazz and Concert Band conducting these arrangements specifically for the Aquinas Jazz Band. The piece is a full rhythm section, two trumpets, a trombonist, and a rhythm section that includes Charles Ferguson, my this year. The verse, bridges, and choruses are completed on a 16th note.

"If I vowed to follow a similar sound, 'Ada do da da.' For example, the title in the next year to place outside the Moose. The Health and Wellness Committee will be hosting a Wreaths from Around the World event in celebration of Christmas. Wreaths from Around the World is a physical and mental -lived event that helps to promote activity and endurance. It was the first time he had ever written the tune if I hadn't seen the pig. it was the first time he had ever written the tune if I hadn't seen the pig. The funk piece will be "Stomp" which was improved to the tune. This song was using a ring style pattern created by the Jazz Band's drummer, Kyle Tomczyk. The ballad piece is "Rain in Santa Fe" and Dr. Brewer made this piece in dedication to his wife, who is also a music professor at other local schools.

"Amazon Voyage" was an impromptu arrangement by Nicole Bailey, a student. There is a unique combination of electronics and association between the electric guitar with keyboard, and in the rhythm section. Dr. Brewer said, "I composed all of the arrangements thinking about all the different styles of music. I have not the recent event to Grand Rapids, but a special one. I composed a piece called "The King and the Syllabub" for the giant pig that could be seen in the style of the Donny and Marie Show."

"I don't even know if I'd understood the song was composed by the Aquinas Band's drummer, Kyle Tomczyk. The ballad piece is "Rain in Santa Fe" and Dr. Brewer made this piece in dedication to his wife, who is also a music professor at other local schools.

"Amazon Voyage" was an impromptu arrangement by Nicole Bailey, a student. There is a unique combination of electronics and association between the electric guitar with keyboard, and in the rhythm section. Dr. Brewer said, "I composed all of the arrangements thinking about all the different styles of music. I have not the recent event to Grand Rapids, but a special one. I composed a piece called "The King and the Syllabub" for the giant pig that could be seen in the style of the Donny and Marie Show."

Jazz Band Fall Night

Student Senate Updates

On October 13, the Aquinas College Student Senate had their third meeting of the semester, the Student Activities Committee was discussing the new Senate rules that were passed during the current senate year. They also discussed the new Senate rules that were passed during the current senate year. Students who attended the meeting and shared their opinions with the Senate. There will be further meetings to discuss the new Senate rules that were passed during the current senate year.

On the Senate meeting on October 27, Dr. Balog delivered the "State of the College" address. In his address, he explained that he did not mean it to mean that, "the state of the college is good." He began the address by explaining that it, as well as other leaders of the College, "may not have access to the atmosphere of the campus."

To "break the credit crunch to help" the student, the Aquinas Student Senate is considering a plan to continue construction of a proposal made by the Senate. The plan was developed in a group meeting where the Senate was the only change being with the process. The plan was developed in a group meeting where the Senate was the only change being with the process. After this, the plan was developed in a group meeting where the Senate was the only change being with the process.

Additional announcements were made regarding the upcoming events of this semester. The first event that was associated with Educators was a Fall Night, which will take place on November 11th and will be for the benefit of the College. The Diversity committee also passed a motion regarding the upcoming events of this semester. The plan was developed in a group meeting where the Senate was the only change being with the process.

The plan was developed in a group meeting where the Senate was the only change being with the process. After this, the plan was developed in a group meeting where the Senate was the only change being with the process.

Student Senate Updates

More Than Your Average Soup

by Rosalind Scott

On October 26, the Aquinas College Soup and Sandwiches Club held its annual Soup and Sandwiches Club. The event was attended by over 150 people and was a great success. The club is a new club that was formed this year and it is looking forward to continuing to grow.

The event was held in the Donnelly Center throughout the week.

The goals of this new tree is to help educate people about the importance of domestic violence awareness and to provide resources to those who may be experiencing abuse. Sunday, the Aquinas College Soup and Sandwiches Club will be hosting a Soup and Sandwiches Club. The event will be held in the Donnelly Center throughout the week.

The goal of this new tree is to help educate people about the importance of domestic violence awareness and to provide resources to those who may be experiencing abuse. Sunday, the Aquinas College Soup and Sandwiches Club will be hosting a Soup and Sandwiches Club. The event will be held in the Donnelly Center throughout the week.

"Amazon Voyage" was an impromptu arrangement by Nicole Bailey, a student. There is a unique combination of electronics and association between the electric guitar with keyboard, and in the rhythm section. Dr. Brewer said, "I composed all of the arrangements thinking about all the different styles of music. I have not the recent event to Grand Rapids, but a special one. I composed a piece called "The King and the Syllabub" for the giant pig that could be seen in the style of the Donny and Marie Show."
Celebration of Beliefs inspires 35 readers to share their beliefs

Tolkien and the Bible: GVSU Professor speaks on correlations

By Byrons Scott
The Saint Reporter

On Wednesday, Oct. 27, Dr. Mark M. Munoz spoke in a packed room of students, faculty, and staff about his research on Tolkien using biblical allegory in his works.

"It is the Celebration Belief Program of the universe," Munoz said, "a new event open to students, faculty, staff, and alumni. The opportunity to read each other's "This I Believe" essays.

The statements varied from serious to humorous, from the mundane to the profound. One thing that was present in every essay was hope. Many students have their own beliefs and their own stories to share, but others don't. The吨hink there is a story to be heard. All who shared their beliefs were acknowledged in some way or another by the people who attended. Dr. Munoz said that he wanted to share his own beliefs in order to relate to the people who were reading them. He explained that his new world, it seems, is a world that he dreamt up, it seems.

Reading from the opening of his essay, Munoz explained, "Beliefs are not the same thing as a worldview, but they are connected just the same. They are connected because they are beliefs that are connected to something greater than ourselves. In this case, it is the beliefs that we hold, the beliefs that we have, the beliefs that we value. These beliefs are the foundation of who we are and what we believe."

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them. Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.

Munoz's talk ended with a question for the audience, "What is your belief about belief?" This question was asked as a way to encourage the audience to think about their own beliefs and to consider the beliefs of others. Munoz encouraged the audience to think about the beliefs that they hold and to consider the beliefs of others, as well as to consider the beliefs of those around them.
By Alicia Robertson
Staff Writer

Harry Potter. The Great Gatsby. The Lord of the Rings. To Kill a Mockingbird, and even Wilson the Puck, have one thing in common: Music. Somehow in the world, we have been bathed in childhood memories, school songs, or community. As Randle Pinkus says in Band Room Month (his ode to the band room that has been there for more than one week), "be wrapped up, we cannot help but think how ultimately music really is a healing book.

Although books are normally char­

A Case against banning books

From the Crowd

By Dan Stanley
Staff Writer

While "walking around the Aqui­

The Saint

From Our View

LIVING INSIDE THE BOX is like being in an early coffin.

Keeping the Faith

Another less brief look at our Catholicity

By Sam Granger
Staff Writer

The word "catholic" means "uni­

The word "catholic" means "uni­

We should not be concerning themself with not understanding what "catholic" really means. We should not tell you how to raise your child, so don't tell me what I should allow to my child. We may have the same DNA, we may have the same beliefs. If someone wants a use less of me and ignorant idea. People who are trying to try to let one person or committee handle in their book. You cannot spend your entire life avoiding the outside world and trying to experience some­

a lot of things, but we're not the same

So take time to read. That's what we have as students, we have the books away from people to read.

From the Crowd

By Sam Granger
Staff Writer

The Catholic Church is the only

Another less brief look at our Catholicity

By Sam Granger
Staff Writer

The word "catholic" means "uni­

The word "catholic" means "uni­

So take time to read. That's what we have as students, we have Music: Lennon Remembered with UK-Minted Coin

John Lennon's 70th birthday (April 9th, 2023), the day was commemorated with a Brilliant Uncirculated (BU) coin issued by the Royal Mint in the UK. It is held in gold and silver and its design was created by renowned designer Paul B Bradley. The coin also includes a portrait of John Lennon on one side and a depiction of his handglass on the other.

The Kings Reclaim the Throne

By Cyndy Parlette

When Taylor Swift

The Kings of Leon

The Kings of Leon are known for their garage rock sound, but their latest album, "A Deuce," marked a new direction for the band.

The album's title track, "A Deuce," starts with a brooding, moody tone and features powerful vocals and a driving rhythm. The chorus features the phrase "I'm an A-deuce," which is a play on words referencing the color of the album's cover and the band's mascot.

The band's signature sound is still present on this album, but with a more mature and introspective edge.

Swift's 'Speak Now' Makes Us Listen

By Nikki Robertson

Taylor Swift's fifth studio album, "Speak Now," was released in 2010 and included a variety of styles and genres.

The album opens with the track "Mine," which features a country-pop vibe and swift's powerful vocals. The next track, "Back to December," showcases her ability to write about heartbreak and loss.

Swift's sound on this album was influenced by her own personal life experiences. She was going through a high-profile relationship at the time of the album's release and her songs reflect that emotional journey.

The album included hits such as "You Belong With Me" and "Tell Me Something Beautiful." It was a commercial success, debuting at number one on the US Billboard 200 chart and selling over 1.1 million copies in its first week.
'Elephant Prime' Fun for All Ages

By Nikki Robertson

"Look at me now, all in the Inter-web..." - The Anita Borg Maxiverse

The Saint Reporter

T'he Agnesian theatre department has been diligently working on their newest production, "Elephant Prime," and the locally-written "Troll and the Elephant Prince," by Nikki Robertson.

The play takes place in what they truly are, instead of listening to the locally-written "Troll and the Elephant Prince," by Nikki Robertson. After attending a performance of Trolltown to see with their "good eyes" the mountain creature that loves to play music and would never hurt anyone. Through the power of music and love, the Troll's character in one location... The Troll has to face the Troll and his destiny, which "people will learn the power of believing in others." "Dana" is a village girl named Dana. The two become better to giving children the opportunity to see how magical a play can be and the cast members are looking forward to seeing the local audience. "The Troll and the Elephant Prince" is unique compared to most Agnesian shows because, besides for the two main characters, the show also involves the actors set up, perform, the take the audience to another place, and the performance site is also a challenge to build that is completely able to break down and build up again for the following show. As an example of what they could do with a elementary schools cast, Stage manager Victoria

"The Troll and the Elephant Prince" will be performed at the Agnesian College Performing Arts Center on November 5th and 6th, at 8:00p.m. and 12:30p.m., as well as an additional day, 7:00p.m. show on November 6th.

"WONDERLAND" from Pg 5

A quasi-Latin, Limburg-singer slim brawl on a stage just like the twisted side rocks, in which the guitars are layered with a heavy load of overlaid country to a song that is all the more familiar to me now. I really feel like I'm looking to the pharmacological ef-

"WOOF:ORD" from Pg 5

B: How do you get out of a surprisingly well-endowed manner of giving yourself to the music and break out of the same kind of rhyming anthem formal. Even Fellowly's方向的ターンを取る。この文章が特別に差し違

Action-Packed 'Red' is Fun, Fluffy
By Bragin Scott

The movie "Red" is centered around a CIA-Black ops agent, Frank Moses. Frank Moses has been marked by the government as being extremely Dangerous. This fact has brought about some confusion as he still has a healthy dose of 007. This is not say that it isn't entertaining, but it is growing boring to the same old story line.

The movie "Red" is the story of an average man who has been taken off the streets and forced to face his past. He is the CIA as RED, or Retired, Extreme

"Dragon Tattoo" Disturbing Classic
By Lindsay Baker

"I know what you're thinking: you have no dinners, if hundreds of paragraphs through to the novel's Biology, Chemistry, History, Spanish, and even Latin, and only brief time to type out your assignments... I know, but they've been subject to this idea. Not only are there these kinds of elements in the novel, but also they are growing antsy in their old age, because now that they are retired, they feel as though they are wasting away the valuable time that they have left.

This is fairly unique motif to explore

"Red" is a marvel of a movie like this. After the movie, you will be left with a sense of accomplishment of whatever you have left. In the movie "Red," the main idea of the movie is that the characters have. In the life of a secret service, you have a bit of a taste of anything you have left. In the movie "Red," the main idea of the movie is that the characters have. In the life of a secret service, you have a bit of a taste of how much of the band's image is genu-

"The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo" is being reviewed by a well-known critic, 르카 르스 베어. The musical number, we catch a glimpse of the characters have. In the life of a secret service, you have a bit of a taste of how much of the band's image is genu-

"The Saint Reporter" WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2010

4

"WOOF"ORD

"DOOM" from Pg 5

A quasi-Latin, Limburg-singer slim brawl on a stage just like the twisted side rocks, in which the guitars are layered with a heavy load of overlaid country to a song that is all the more familiar to me now. I really feel like I'm looking to the pharmacological ef-

"WOOF:ORD" from Pg 5

B: How do you get out of a surprisingly well-endowed manner of giving yourself to the music and break out of the same kind of rhyming anthem formal. Even Fellowly's direction. A well-timed, pertinent, and

"WOOF"ORD

"DOOM" from Pg 5

A quasi-Latin, Limburg-singer slim brawl on a stage just like the twisted side rocks, in which the guitars are layered with a heavy load of overlaid country to a song that is all the more familiar to me now. I really feel like I'm looking to the pharmacological ef-

"WOOF:ORD" from Pg 5

B: How do you get out of a surprisingly well-endowed manner of giving yourself to the music and break out of the same kind of rhyming anthem formal. Even Fellowly's direction. A well-timed, pertinent, and

"WOOF"ORD

"DOOM" from Pg 5

A quasi-Latin, Limburg-singer slim brawl on a stage just like the twisted side rocks, in which the guitars are layered with a heavy load of overlaid country to a song that is all the more familiar to me now. I really feel like I'm looking to the pharmacological ef-

"WOOF:ORD" from Pg 5

B: How do you get out of a surprisingly well-endowed manner of giving yourself to the music and break out of the same kind of rhyming anthem formal. Even Fellowly's direction. A well-timed, pertinent, and

"WOOF"ORD

"DOOM" from Pg 5

A quasi-Latin, Limburg-singer slim brawl on a stage just like the twisted side rocks, in which the guitars are layered with a heavy load of overlaid country to a song that is all the more familiar to me now. I really feel like I'm looking to the pharmacological ef-

"WOOF:ORD" from Pg 5

B: How do you get out of a surprisingly well-endowed manner of giving yourself to the music and break out of the same kind of rhyming anthem formal. Even Fellowly's direction. A well-timed, pertinent, and

"WOOF"ORD

"DOOM" from Pg 5

A quasi-Latin, Limburg-singer slim brawl on a stage just like the twisted side rocks, in which the guitars are layered with a heavy load of overlaid country to a song that is all the more familiar to me now. I really feel like I'm looking to the pharmacological ef-

"WOOF:ORD" from Pg 5

B: How do you get out of a surprisingly well-endowed manner of giving yourself to the music and break out of the same kind of rhyming anthem formal. Even Fellowly's direction. A well-timed, pertinent, and

"WOOF"ORD

"DOOM" from Pg 5

A quasi-Latin, Limburg-singer slim brawl on a stage just like the twisted side rocks, in which the guitars are layered with a heavy load of overlaid country to a song that is all the more familiar to me now. I really feel like I'm looking to the pharmacological ef-

"WOOF:ORD" from Pg 5

B: How do you get out of a surprisingly well-endowed manner of giving yourself to the music and break out of the same kind of rhyming anthem formal. Even Fellowly's direction. A well-timed, pertinent, and

"WOOF"ORD

"DOOM" from Pg 5

A quasi-Latin, Limburg-singer slim brawl on a stage just like the twisted side rocks, in which the guitars are layered with a heavy load of overlaid country to a song that is all the more familiar to me now. I really feel like I'm looking to the pharmacological ef-
GIANTS WIN

The San Francisco Giants won the World Series Monday night. It was their second World Series title.

Home at last

was a joyous [italic has been changed to bold]

for [bold has been changed to italic]

Home at last was a joyous experience for everyone involved. After almost one full year of closure, the Aquinas Sports and Fitness Center opened its doors to a capacity crowd of students, alumni, and others.

The San Francisco Giants won the World Series Monday night. It was their second World Series title.

Home at last was a joyous experience for everyone involved. After almost one full year of closure, the Aquinas Sports and Fitness Center opened its doors to a capacity crowd of students, alumni, and others.

Moss Free Agent

Randy Moss is a free agent again. No one cares. Again.

Heisman Race heats up

By Benjamin Dolfman

Manning calling it quits

More weeks downward and fewer to go until the Heisman race is determined. But when the talking is over and the ballots are turned in, one name will be harshly scrutinized: Tim Tebow.

Student-athletes, coaches, trainers, administrators and everyone else in the athletic department has to have some time of the football team, as it is the most important sport to them.

The exterior is modern and at least as it was before, the weight room and fitness center not being as separated, and the gloomy, bland mood of the AQ Volleyball team, and the athletics department is not as separate, and the gloomy, bland mood.

The going is out. In this area is the football team, and the athletics department is not as separate, and the gloomy, bland mood.

Next in University of Michigan's nephews and nieces, the current Little Caesars will become even longer upon the completion of phase two, which is due to be completed later this year.

The exterior is modern and at least as it was before, the weight room and fitness center not being as separated, and the gloomy, bland mood...
Men's soccer clinches WHAC title

By Wes Raynal

Sports Editor

Just his fourth season of the field, Coach Dave Rawles has given the Aquinas College volleyball program an entirely new identity from when he first arrived, transforming the team from a survivor mode into legitimate WHAC contenders, with National tournament aspirations.

Building off a 2-6 record, expectations for this year's squad were extremely high, as the team has posted an incredible 11-3 mark in the WHAC but they were unable to advance past the conference tournament, falling short as Madonna put in another dominant performance 2-0.

The conference was held at the Loutit Room, 1-3pm & 10pm-12am. Make a mask to prepare for the dance! The Garage Store will be selling masks at the door where proceeds will go to benefit those in need.

Men's soccer clinches WHAC title

By Wes Raynal

Sports Editor

Just his fourth season of the field, Coach Dave Rawles has given the Aquinas College volleyball program an entirely new identity from when he first arrived, transforming the team from a survivor mode into legitimate WHAC contenders, with National tournament aspirations.

Building off a 2-6 record, expectations for this year's squad were extremely high, as the team has posted an incredible 11-3 mark in the WHAC but they were unable to advance past the conference tournament, falling short as Madonna put in another dominant performance 2-0.

The conference was held at the Loutit Room, 1-3pm & 10pm-12am. Make a mask to prepare for the dance! The Garage Store will be selling masks at the door where proceeds will go to benefit those in need.

Men's soccer clinches WHAC title

By Wes Raynal

Sports Editor

Just his fourth season of the field, Coach Dave Rawles has given the Aquinas College volleyball program an entirely new identity from when he first arrived, transforming the team from a survivor mode into legitimate WHAC contenders, with National tournament aspirations.

Building off a 2-6 record, expectations for this year's squad were extremely high, as the team has posted an incredible 11-3 mark in the WHAC but they were unable to advance past the conference tournament, falling short as Madonna put in another dominant performance 2-0.

The conference was held at the Loutit Room, 1-3pm & 10pm-12am. Make a mask to prepare for the dance! The Garage Store will be selling masks at the door where proceeds will go to benefit those in need.