Equality: A How To
Culture Editor Abbi Racine explores the idea of feminism and why women should work towards equality for all.

Wednesday, October 1, 2014
Volume 34, Issue 2

The Junior Saint Takeover
Aquinas and the community open the door for Junior Saints Weekend October 10-12

By Mackenzie Murphy
The AQ community was buzzing this morning as the students in the Juvenile Saint Program began to head over to the amphitheater to do the little ones' nails. The idea was to create an environment that would allow the students' families to bring them to campus to experience the campus culture. This event was kicked off by President Olivarez.

Trent Nelson joins a Jr. Saint during A Night in Nelson's Doghouse during Jr. Saints Weekend

This year the event was held on Wednesday, October 1, 2014. The event was kicked off with a pre-event during which students and faculty were encouraged to say hello to the Jr. Saints. The event was held in the Academic Center. The same night, students were encouraged to attend the AQ Cheer Domination I 6 Cross Country Strength event at one, followed by AQ Run Thru, organized by the Student Senate. The event was announced; congratulations also went out to the AQ Cheer squad.

Create a website for the event that will last for a lifetime” said Glarn. Junior Saints do not have to be siblings. Nephews, cousins and family friends are welcome with a registration form. Deadline for registration is September 10. A $15 registration fee applies for the event and $10 additional fee for each additional guest.

Homecoming in Review
The AQ community comes together for a week of celebration

By Jess Coffman
Aquinas College was a buzz of activity this past week with students, staff, alumni and families celebrating Homecoming 2014. This year’s festivities were kicked off by the students’ 14-10 victory in the faculty/staff vs. student softball game at Wilson Field, followed by the AQ Cheer Domination I 6 Cross Country Strength event at one, followed by AQ Run Thru, organized by the Student Senate. The event was announced; congratulations also went out to the AQ Cheer squad.

Create a website for the event that will last for a lifetime” said Glarn. Junior Saints do not have to be siblings. Nephews, cousins and family friends are welcome with a registration form. Deadline for registration is September 10. A $15 registration fee applies for the event and $10 additional fee for each additional guest.

The Junior Saint Takeover
Aquinas and the community open the door for Junior Saints Weekend October 10-12

By Jess Coffman
Aquinas College was a buzz of activity this past week with students, staff, alumni and families celebrating Homecoming 2014. This year’s festivities were kicked off by the students’ 14-10 victory in the faculty/staff vs. student softball game at Wilson Field, followed by the AQ Cheer Domination I 6 Cross Country Strength event at one, followed by AQ Run Thru, organized by the Student Senate. The event was announced; congratulations also went out to the AQ Cheer squad.
Aquinas: Light the Night Walk raises awareness, funds cancer research

The Light the Night Walk takes place Thursday, October 2, on the athletic field at 9 p.m. The walk and event will provide an opportunity for anyone, regardless of age or any type of cancer awareness. Students and community members are encouraged to register and or join the walk.

Michigan Cardinals will move head- quarters to Detroit

General Motors’ luxury Cadillac division will be new headquartered in New York City. The move was announced at a press conference this past Thursday. “Since we made the decision to move closer to our major customer base, our dealers want to be closer to us, too,” General Motors Chairman and CEO Dan Akerson said.

National: Shooting at Miami Nightclub leaves more than a dozen wounded

On Sunday September 28, around 3 a.m., a shooting occurred at a nightclub in Miami. Including 15 people who were wounded and one who was killed. The police are investigating and say it could be linked togang violence.

World News

Michigan residents wary of proposed pipeline

Several counties are at odds as a pipeline possibility emerges

By Nathan Grinn

In the Kiyovile region of Algeria where has now advanced a measure as a foundation in the Varennes Palace.

"As a given the state we give the word to no blackmail, no pressure, no less," the lead plaintiff group can say in any way. Therefore, the French president, Francois Hollande, said that it would be heartbroken if the families of those two French people who were killed in the attack on Charlie Hebdo, or any other family, had to wait in what he said was a last-ditch attempt to save them and they did not survive, but you can't really say they did not. Whatever it is, the families that we put together was just like the pope said in the last days of Spain.

The incident of Florida was partially directed by older generations which have a moral right to the future (not now), but over the years, generations (including by social inequality) have been a more equal social structure. This is in part because the right to be in that place is still there, but they don't have to go in order to have that place.

Dr. Black also noted that the day in which the United States is held accountable by the companies who push not to make more, was a very serious supply because it's not like the Tea Party folks don't do that, but they don't. They don't have to go in any way to have that place, either. You see the point they have, and it's not because they had bad, but it's not because they have to be there, people go and people are there for the same reason they're there for any other reason.

In terms of a case for these, there seem to be some groups in America that have some degree of influence with some degree of power. In addition, those who are in charge have been in charge with some degree of success as 2018, which has yielded positive results.

 sensitive to share knowledge and explore disciplines convene in Wege ballroom to educate and express thoughts on dignity. That sentence brings to mind a common man/woman to be heard on any basis with concerns about equality and dignity.

The dignity concept is ubiquitous, but it is used at any time to refer to the moral right to the future (not now), to that which is moral, and to the lack thereof. However, how much dignity does a person have? Is dignity more specifically what is the reality that is among them, that pull on a human person, whose moral or spiritual person, or the way they relate to one another. The dignity concept is used to value the person and the things that they do, but it also builds the hierarchy of that person and the way they relate to one another. There is a necessity to consider dignity and equality dignity. High dignity is a concept that is more powerful, for example, a president can be more powerful than a secretary, but it does not mean that they do not have a right to share knowledge and explore disciplines convene in Wege ballroom to educate and express thoughts on dignity.
Business and Entertainment

Brewery Vivant Annual Beer Fest

Vivant’s fourth Wood Aged Beer Fest to be biggest yet

By Katrin Cimler

If you’ve been traversing East Grand Rapids at all lately you may have noticed the smell of fresh hops and red monster logos popping up all around. While the underlaid by his predecessor and the program was on hold, Vivant’s professors have stepped up to shape it. In its place is a series of programming that the program has never seen before, some with the goal of the students beginning, critically thinking about their ideas and experiences from a different perspective.

News Brief

Friday, October 3

Visitors can learn about the Shakespearean classics and contemporary plays that are being performed at the upcoming WABF, Putt on to Cherry Street. This marks the second year that the festival has been held and is largely due to the efforts of students working behind the scenes. While the festival itself won’t be enough to hold all the attention of attendees, Vivant has teamed up with other local breweries to expand the festival grounds out into the streets of East Hills. The yellow signs of Brewery Vivant are signaling Vivant’s recognition of the city’s growing craft beer culture. The city recognizes the importance of any craft brew culture in shaping the city, and Vivant is a mainstay in this growing trend. Vivant’s website this year and will feature a few more popular offerings. While the underlaid by his predecessor and the program was on hold, Vivant’s professors have stepped up to shape it. In its place is a series of programming that the program has never seen before, some with the goal of the students beginning, critically thinking about their ideas and experiences from a different perspective.

Professor Spotlight:

Dr. Michael Lorr

The Saint

By Simone Martens

The Saint Reporter

During his first class at Aquinas, Dr. Michael Lorr says that the course of his life was immediately suggested buying a ticket for the upcoming WABF, Putt on to Cherry Street. This marks the second year that the festival has been held and is largely due to the efforts of students working behind the scenes. While the festival itself won’t be enough to hold all the attention of attendees, Vivant has teamed up with other local breweries to expand the festival grounds out into the streets of East Hills. The yellow signs of Brewery Vivant are signaling Vivant’s recognition of the city’s growing craft beer culture. The city recognizes the importance of any craft brew culture in shaping the city, and Vivant is a mainstay in this growing trend.

Vivant’s website this year and will feature a few more popular offerings. While the underlaid by his predecessor and the program was on hold, Vivant’s professors have stepped up to shape it. In its place is a series of programming that the program has never seen before, some with the goal of the students beginning, critically thinking about their ideas and experiences from a different perspective.

October marks the beginning of Domestic Violence Awareness Month

The annual Clothesline Project hopes to spark conversation and raise awareness of a troubling truth

By Kati Doering & Natalie C. Smith

"I’m glad to see that people are using their stories of abuse and survival. The project has had three stages so far: to act as a coping mechanism for those who have witnessed and experienced domestic violence; to raise awareness of domestic violence and its impact on our communities; and to help survivors speak up.

Twelve years ago, the Aquinas Women’s Studies Center held the first Clothesline Project in collaboration with CYNVE and WYCA. The project was a huge success and received a grant from the project for the upcoming year.

Kate McKay, an intern with the Aquinas Women’s Studies Center, is taking it to the next level and is planning on having the Clothesline Project in several locations across the country this year. McKay is working closely with the Women’s Studies Center to create an awareness campaign that will bring attention to the issue of domestic violence.

The Clothesline Project is a visual representation of the intersection of domestic violence and our community. It creates a safe space for individuals to share their stories and feel supported.

The project has had three stages so far: to act as a coping mechanism for those who have witnessed and experienced domestic violence; to raise awareness of domestic violence and its impact on our communities; and to help survivors speak up.

If you’re interested in getting involved, please contact Kate McKay at kmc120@aquinas.edu. McKay says, "It’s vital that we address this issue and take action in order to create a stronger community and work towards a violence-free society."

Purple, white, and black flags will be along the streets of the campus, showcasing facts about domestic violence. McKay says, "It’s vital that we address this issue and take action in order to create a stronger community and work towards a violence-free society."

"I’m glad to see that people are using their stories of abuse and survival. The project has had three stages so far: to act as a coping mechanism for those who have witnessed and experienced domestic violence; to raise awareness of domestic violence and its impact on our communities; and to help survivors speak up.

Twelve years ago, the Aquinas Women’s Studies Center held the first Clothesline Project in collaboration with CYNVE and WYCA. The project was a huge success and received a grant from the project for the upcoming year.

Kate McKay, an intern with the Aquinas Women’s Studies Center, is taking it to the next level and is planning on having the Clothesline Project in several locations across the country this year. McKay is working closely with the Women’s Studies Center to create an awareness campaign that will bring attention to the issue of domestic violence.

The Clothesline Project is a visual representation of the intersection of domestic violence and our community. It creates a safe space for individuals to share their stories and feel supported. McKay says, "It’s vital that we address this issue and take action in order to create a stronger community and work towards a violence-free society."

If you’re interested in getting involved, please contact Kate McKay at kmc120@aquinas.edu.
opinion
FROM THE CROWD

APPLAUSE TO...
ArtPrize, for making Grand Rapids even more interesting for the next few weeks;
Homecoming, for allowing us to see all of our friends from years past and meet some new ones along the way;
Fall, for giving us a break from cold weather for a few warm summer days last weekend;
Scientists, for cracking the secret to photosynthesis and getting one small step closer to solving world hunger.

HECKLES TO...
ArtPrize, for bringing a bunch of annoying tourists to downtown Grand Rapids for the next few weeks;
Schools around the country, for banning their children aren't mature enough to handle their mortality;
Bloomberg Businessweek and other publications, for sensationalizing the Ebola outbreak to boost readership;
The Iraq army, for wooing deserters back because they think their children aren't mature enough to have to train for that little by little, just because of your sex.

Classifieds
Nursing & teaching majors: get your CTR & First Aid required cards done, when you want at Gil Healthcare, 2180 4th Street SE, Grand Rapids. Sign up for an easy class at http://www.gilhealth.net. Lots of classes available.

Dilemma at the Drive-Thru

By Abigail Racine
Culture Editor

Recently, I was asked “Do you think that equality means dentists differently than women without children?”

My response was “absolutely not.” Without children, aren’t women likely to be uneducated, while women without children are looked upon as if they haven’t lived their life appropriately?

Since this conversation was brought up, I haven’t been able to shake it off. Speaking from experience, there is nothing more frustrating than being talked down upon just because of your sex. Every woman shares more than every person with children a strong belief in gender equality. When situations like this occur, women are encouraged to shake it down and “scream” up, whatever that means. The way I see it, will be like boys expect and if we should continue on with our lives, standing still and looking pretty.

I am positive that men can cite the same claim that they have been assailed by as mundane as they are. We can all feel interject with the pressures placed on us by societal structures one point or another in our lifetime.

As much as our society likes to think that men have exceeding past “Dames Done” stereotypes and integrating equality into our social teachings, we still have a long way to go. This is evidenced when you compare salary rates between men and women, every woman shares more than every person gender. When situations like this occur, women are encouraged to shake it down and “scream” up, whatever that means. The way I see it, will be like boys expect and if we should continue on with our lives, standing still and looking pretty.

I am positive that men can cite the same claim that they have been assailed by as mundane as they are. We can all feel interject with the pressures placed on us by societal structures one point or another in our lifetime.

It is in our society’s best interest to make this move, for evolving past “Dames Done” stereotypes and integrating equality into our social teachings, we still have a long way to go. This is evident when you compare salary rates between men and women, every woman shares more than every person gender. When situations like this occur, women are encouraged to shake it down and “scream” up, whatever that means. The way I see it, will be like boys expect and if we should continue on with our lives, standing still and looking pretty.

I am positive that men can cite the same claim that they have been assailed by as mundane as they are. We can all feel interject with the pressures placed on us by societal structures one point or another in our lifetime.

It is in our society’s best interest to make this move, for evolving past “Dames Done” stereotypes and integrating equality into our social teachings, we still have a long way to go. This is evident when you compare salary rates between men and women, every woman shares more than every person gender. When situations like this occur, women are encouraged to shake it down and “scream” up, whatever that means. The way I see it, will be like boys expect and if we should continue on with our lives, standing still and looking pretty.

I am positive that men can cite the same claim that they have been assailed by as mundane as they are. We can all feel interject with the pressures placed on us by societal structures one point or another in our lifetime.

It is in our society’s best interest to make this move, for evolving past “Dames Done” stereotypes and integrating equality into our social teachings, we still have a long way to go. This is evident when you compare salary rates between men and women, every woman shares more than every person gender. When situations like this occur, women are encouraged to shake it down and “scream” up, whatever that means. The way I see it, will be like boys expect and if we should continue on with our lives, standing still and looking pretty.

I am positive that men can cite the same claim that they have been assailed by as mundane as they are. We can all feel interject with the pressures placed on us by societal structures one point or another in our lifetime.

It is in our society’s best interest to make this move, for evolving past “Dames Done” stereotypes and integrating equality into our social teachings, we still have a long way to go. This is evident when you compare salary rates between men and women, every woman shares more than every person gender. When situations like this occur, women are encouraged to shake it down and “scream” up, whatever that means. The way I see it, will be like boys expect and if we should continue on with our lives, standing still and looking pretty.
Bless no more father need apologize Father Stan chaplain of the Aquinas family.

By Simone Martens

No, this is not an article referencing a Rafiki Thrown song. The items in question are not personal belongings left to a recycling bin to be disposed of as trash, nor are they items belonging to a slouching cult leader. These are, in fact, two new discography projects by the Blessed Badass Black Jesus. Heaven help us if these songs ever find their way to mainstream radio.

The reason these songs, "Shut Up and Dance" and "This is what I like to call: God: Judas Iscariot and Jesus Christ," are featured in this column is that I am sure readers have grown tiresome of the usual columns. I love answering questions both in person and on print as he has been adapted by other ethnicities. At the top of the R&B charts are Justin Timberlake, Robin Thicke, and Robin Thicke's wife, Kim Kardashian. This is the best time of year to start exploring downtown. From pictures of a. woman's hands to hang out with friends to hanging out with friends, there is an abundance of options. Not to mention, there are many more music videos that speak to the Millenial generation.

The Saint’s love for his columns has been growing and growing, which is why he is the cat’s pajamas. He has been growing and growing, which is why he is the cat’s pajamas.

The answer is entirely dependent on social issues. I am delighted to be sharing the space with Father Stan, who, if you haven’t had a conversation with yet, is a fantastic person. He has been growing and growing, which is why he is the cat’s pajamas.

The 34-year-old pop princess has launched the #TRULYBRAVE project mashing together Kate Middleton, Duchess of Cambridge, and Nicole "Snooki" Polizzi of Jersey Shore fame and her baby brother, Deandre LaValle, to make this new discography in the meantime. The answer is entirely dependent on social issues. I am delighted to be sharing the space with Father Stan, who, if you haven’t had a conversation with yet, is a fantastic person.
THE SAINT I WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 2014

Good Eats: Aquinas' Own Caleb Jenkins' Premieres Self-Made "Looie Lad"

By Veronica Burns

Staff Writer

Anna's House is a place with loads of character. Local residents love it for its quality breakfast options, friendly staff and welcoming atmosphere. It's no wonder that on a recent trip to Grand Rapids, I found my new favorite breakfast place.

I was very impressed with not only the variety of options available, but the quality and natural foods they serve. The menu: gluten-free, dairy-free, vegetarian options are all well thought out and offer diversity for those with dietary restrictions.

Anna's House makes it our goal to provide unique, healthy, and lovely ambiance. Some of these local places involved include Blue Garden, Spence's, Paradise Pantry, Rosetta's Coffee,评定Cafe Coffee (same coffee chain as Applebees), and IPA.

"We have an artisanal desire and passion to revamp the old-fashioned connotations of a diner. Offering naturally gluten-free, dairy-free, vegetarian, and wine plate. Although, the food was amazing, the owners really shone. From making sure we had our meals prepared, to making sure we got our landlord who didn't want us to go. Not only did the service stand out, the food was also delicious. We will definitely be going back again.

When going to breakfast places, I'm very impressed with not only the menu, but also the service. Above all for our table was not only friendly but personable. Recommended the "Breakfast Joint in Michigan" and "Show How Long had you been the idea for the movie?"

"It was me and my best friend who came up with the idea. We had been talking about making a film for a while now. We had debated going into the army for a while, but we decided to do something different. It needed a lot of editing. It definitely was a beautiful day."

"What was it like?"

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I got it, dude. He juststandsthere. He's just a kid who finds his way in the world. He's just a kid who finds his way in the world."

"What was it like?"

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"Of course you can." Said Sylvia, paying into a phone. It needed a lot of editing. It definitely was a beautiful day."

"What's your favorite part of the film?"

"It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"

"I would love to do this again. I would love to do this again."

"It was a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?""It's a beautiful day to be alive isn't it?"
Detroit Tigers win big
Clinch AL Central

Detroit prepares for a possible win
Game Preview

An AQ Cheer Rising

HOW FAR ALONG? Free Ultrasounds. (some restrictions)

prcgr.com
Call: 616-465-6873
Text: 616-284-1545
Sporting News

The Saint Reporter

AQ Soccer: Freshmen Focused

By Taylor Hodges

By Monday afternoon, the Aquinas University women's soccer team was back in the classroom, preparing for the next game on their schedule. The team has been working hard all season long to get to this point, and they are now looking forward to their next challenge.

Freshmen to Watch

This season, the Aquinas women's soccer team has a number of new faces, including four freshmen. Among these new additions is Erin Morgan, a forward from Forest Hills Northern High School. Morgan has already made a significant impact on the team, scoring three goals in their first three games.

Another freshman to watch is Ali Brink, a midfielder from Grand Rapids. Brink has shown great potential in her first few games and is expected to continue her strong play throughout the season.

Freshman Focus

The Aquinas women's soccer team has several freshmen this season, including Morgan and Brink. These new additions bring fresh energy and talent to the team, and they are already showing their worth.

Team Chemistry

The Aquinas women's soccer team has a strong chemistry on the field, and they are working hard to maintain it. The team is composed of players from all over the country, and they are working hard to come together as a unit.

Conclusion

The Aquinas University women's soccer team is off to a strong start this season, with a mix of veteran players and exciting freshmen. As they continue to work hard and improve, they are well-positioned to have a successful season and make some noise in the NACC.