The voice of students
Student Senate elections take place this spring to bring forth senators and executive members

By Tamara Tiethoff
News Intern

Each and everyone of us are entitled to our own opinions and when we would like to see something improved or changed we turn to our very own Student Senate. Currently, Student Senate is going through an election process to elect new cabinet members as well as executive members. Applications were due in February and the election will end on April 13. Online voting will take place from 9 a.m. on March 19 until 5 p.m. on March 23. The senator for the Student Senate has put on various events that have impacted the Aquinas College student body. Some of the events that Student Senate put on this year included career night during organiza, traveling coffee for exam cram, a water drive for Flint, the most recent leadership conference, a senate open house and a fall and winter retreat. There are also a few big events being planned to happen before school gets out as well.

"This will be the first time in over 10 years that there has been a National Week of Action in April. We will have a Real Talk: High School Debate, and finance elections for the Executive Committee and Senator positions. We will also have our Campus Safety Panel and a Feminist Chat on March 26," explains junior and Student Senate Vice Chair Zoe Gipson.

The senators were asked about their favorite part of being involved with Student Senate, they had many things to say.

"I like it because it's such a unique opportunity to create my experience. So much of Senate is taking things into your own hands and turning something into. We get a lot of student concerns, some of which we can't do much about, but a lot we can. There is continual improvement, and once the body works together there's always a new perspective. I have gotten to create and do some incredibly things with some incredible people," shared Gipson.

"I like [being able to] represent myself and the student body during the Senate meetings. It's good to have a voice and it's a great way to make sure that your voice, along with others, is being heard," shared first-year student senator Patrick Truskowski.

One of the biggest achievements of Student Senate this year was the stipend decrease. After working as a member of the budget committee, Student Senate officials voted to have their own stipends eliminated in hopes of being able to put more money toward the students instead of themselves.

"I would also like to say that another big achievement has been our work with RSO Assembly and the changes we have been making in the past few years and have continued to make. We're focusing on giving RSO leaders what they need in terms of resources, while providing a platform for checks and balances," said Gipson.

Student Senate gives students the opportunity to get involved in the behind-the-scenes work at Aquinas. Instead of just wishing for a change, the elected representatives of each class are given the opportunity to actually make the change. Despite any preconceived notions about your chances to get elected as a representative, anyone who has an interest in being a leader and being a voice of the student body is encouraged to fill out an application.

"I've heard a lot of people say that it's a popularity contest, because student government is high school always was. But here, it's not," shared Gipson. "It's a small enough that 'popularity' can't play a role in elections. It's passion, and people can see that is what makes these elections.

Assistant senator Kathicha Bonner said, "getting involved with Student Senate can seem scary but it's a really supportive group of students. It's an empowering community one you take the time to learn about and can help support the student voice and create a well rounded experience for all students. Talk to a class representative. We are far from scary and we want you to hear us.

Anything but unstopppable
Grand Rapids organizations collaborate to celebrate women and art

Grand Rapids is the second largest city in Michigan and is no way in short of creativity, integrity, and passion. With such a strong small business presence in the city, organizations are coming together on March 26 to celebrate entrepreneurship with "Unstoppable! A Day of Celebrating Women Entrepreneurs & Makers."

The event, a collaboration from Avenue for the Arts, Grand Rapids Opportunities for Women (GROW), Local First, and Creative Money, will have a full day of presentations, workshops, and an art market. The event will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Grand Rapids Art Museum.

Featured artists
Emily Chilvers - tattoos & artwork
Colyn DeBano - jewelry & metalsmitching
Cynthia Hagedorn - artistic event coordinator
Courtney Jones - handmade goods

...and many more!

*Story by Mayra Monroy, Illustration by Madison Wilder
Breaking News from around the world

International student profile: Gabriella Aguilera

A New World: Gabriella explains the vast array of differences between her home in Puerto Rico and Grand Rapids.

---

news

Grand Rapids: Downtown Market may move to a bigger site.

Grand Rapids Downtown Market president and CEO Matt Mills said that since the market opened in May in a small building on Wealthy St. SW, interest has been strong. The market is now being considered for a move to the Grand River Center on the Grand River.

SPOKESMAN

AQ EPIC — a club that aims to educate students about environmental issues through cleanups, giveaways, and other events — is preparing for the spring 2016 semester.

"We also create social opportunities for students to engage with one another," said AQ EPIC member and junior Brian Gonye.

"But we also work hard to educate our members on how these actions can help us way we can help our environment on an individual level."

This semester, AQ EPIC is planning to hit the campus and have a booth at the International Club's Multicultural Night to inform students to take a hands-on approach to protecting and advocating for the environment.

It's a dedicated education that we really try to take strong initiative and involve our members in to ensure around campus," said Christy.

In the past, AQ EPIC has supported a number of environmentally-friendly products made by companies like Lush, a cosmetic company that specializes in natural hair and beauty products. Last month, the club sponsored a formal event called "Keeping Tree," which took place in Holmdene and featured performances from AQ EPIC members.

It isn't just about gifts and giveaways for EPIC, however. EPIC has also coordinated campus clean-ups, where students volunteer to pick up trash or clean up areas surrounding the creek and the woods. EPIC has also contacted local policy makers, where volunteers travel to clean up Michigan's shores.

Some of the impact EPIC has on the Aquinas community can be seen around campus. Last fall, EPIC installed three bins in the forested areas surrounding campus.

"It's bats are migratory and will be returning to Michigan real soon," said Christy.

The bins will play host specifically to the bats in the surrounding areas, which are surrounded by forests and water. There are real advantages directly spaying to the attract large populations of insects.

"Our goal is to be more of a friend to the Aquinas community for the work that we have accomplished," said Christy. "Whether that be the bats that have come to campus, the tron that we have put in place, the education on the bat boxes, or even the the Native American Council. AQ EPIC will help educate people into the role and environmental health of an area especially the students.

To get involved with the efforts of AQ EPIC, members are encouraged to stop by the clean-up day, start Christy or visit President Managing Director MacLean.

---

Grand Rapids - Downtown Market may move to a bigger site

Grand Rapids Downtown Market president and CEO Matt Mills said that since the market opened in May in a small building on Wealthy St. SW, interest has been strong. The market is now being considered for a move to the Grand River Center on the Grand River.

---

MICHIGAN: Blueprintproof advances in 2016

After a year of work, Ford Motor Company has created new certified bolt-down houses that will be offered to the 2007 Ford Fusion sedan and SUVs. The doors are strong enough to stop a .30 caliber bullet and are the first in the market to do so.

The cost is currently unknown but the doors will not be sold to non-policy customers.

---

BREAKING NEWS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

---

INFORMED DECISIONS

---

Educating Students: The SAAP works to keep students informed about the potential risks and consequences of drugs and alcohol so that they make the right decisions

---

International Palestinian teachers win peace prize

---

Grand Rapids - Downtown Market may move to a bigger site

Grand Rapids Downtown Market president and CEO Matt Mills said that since the market opened in May in a small building on Wealthy St. SW, interest has been strong. The market is now being considered for a move to the Grand River Center on the Grand River.

---

Grand Rapids: Downtown Market may move to a bigger site

Grand Rapids Downtown Market president and CEO Matt Mills said that since the market opened in May in a small building on Wealthy St. SW, interest has been strong. The market is now being considered for a move to the Grand River Center on the Grand River.

---

Michigan: Blueprintproof advances in 2016

After a year of work, Ford Motor Company has created new certified bolt-down houses that will be offered to the 2007 Ford Fusion sedan and SUVs. The doors are strong enough to stop a .30 caliber bullet and are the first in the market to do so.

The cost is currently unknown but the doors will not be sold to non-policy customers.

---

BREAKING NEWS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

---

INFORMED DECISIONS

---

Educating Students: The SAAP works to keep students informed about the potential risks and consequences of drugs and alcohol so that they make the right decisions

---

International Palestinian teachers win peace prize

---

Grand Rapids - Downtown Market may move to a bigger site

Grand Rapids Downtown Market president and CEO Matt Mills said that since the market opened in May in a small building on Wealthy St. SW, interest has been strong. The market is now being considered for a move to the Grand River Center on the Grand River.

---

Michigan: Blueprintproof advances in 2016

After a year of work, Ford Motor Company has created new certified bolt-down houses that will be offered to the 2007 Ford Fusion sedan and SUVs. The doors are strong enough to stop a .30 caliber bullet and are the first in the market to do so.

The cost is currently unknown but the doors will not be sold to non-policy customers.

---

BREAKING NEWS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

---

INFORMED DECISIONS

---

Educating Students: The SAAP works to keep students informed about the potential risks and consequences of drugs and alcohol so that they make the right decisions

---

International Palestinian teachers win peace prize

---

Grand Rapids - Downtown Market may move to a bigger site

Grand Rapids Downtown Market president and CEO Matt Mills said that since the market opened in May in a small building on Wealthy St. SW, interest has been strong. The market is now being considered for a move to the Grand River Center on the Grand River.

---

Michigan: Blueprintproof advances in 2016

After a year of work, Ford Motor Company has created new certified bolt-down houses that will be offered to the 2007 Ford Fusion sedan and SUVs. The doors are strong enough to stop a .30 caliber bullet and are the first in the market to do so.

The cost is currently unknown but the doors will not be sold to non-policy customers.
Easter traditions in America and abroad

By Luisa-Maria Michiu

The exact origins of the religious festivities related to Easter are unknown. Some claim that the word “Easter” is derived from Pascha, a Teutonic word meaning “sunday of spring and fertility.” Others claim that the word came to the Latin as “habitatioialis,” or “white cloth.” An Easter is celebrated in Western churches the Saturday before or the Sunday following the first full moon after March 21. On Easter, Christians use a different calendar to calculate when it will occur, so they typically celebrate the resurrection occurred after he went to the tomb on Easter Sunday.”

In the U.S., many churches hold special events leading up to Easter. The week leading up to Easter Sunday is a time of reflection and the week preceding Easter is called the Holy Week. During Holy Week, people in the U.S. observe Easter delights like baked ham, pastries, vegetables, and many other delicacies.

The Orthodox Easter traditions vary a little from those celebrated in the U.S. The Orthodox Easter is on May 1. This year, Easter is one of the most culturally significant religious celebrations in Eastern Europe. The week prior to Easter (The Great or Holy Week) is used by Russians to conduct all of the necessary preparations—cleaning, cooking, etc. “Good Friday” is a work free day. Lamb and bread are dishes prepared to symbolize the last meal. For example, we have an anonymous chocolate and non-fried cake, which is an absolute delicacy.

So, you finished and turned in your information about height, weight, degree and official major. This is not the last time. In fact, while a door has closed on one story, another has opened. You are graduating this year, and with that, you have a new responsibility to fill the shoes of the Aquinas student. As news editors, Anna and I saw it as always a last piece of copy to finish. You may have been a reporter, editor, or writer, and now you are a news intern.” Tamara proved to be the perfect fit for the newspaper. She didn’t have to put in the extra effort to take the proactive write off, editing, and writing assignments that we handed her, but she always managed to graciously accept every story and every assignment while helping Anna and I with our daily operations. I can’t wait to see how Tamara will do when she works with other people.

For the next year, I wish you all the luck in the world, and I hope that your stories while helping Anna and I with our daily operations. I can’t wait to see how Tamara will do when she works with other people.

May 7 must-haves

Editors Madison Wilder and Anna Miyenko lay down the quick and easy steps to a successful graduation ceremony

By Anna Musiyenko

For many students and their families, this spring, May 7, the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016. Graduation for many means the final time and money spent towards their education. Because of this year’s unique scenario, we know that many students and their families this spring, May 7 is the big day. Aquinas College will be holding its commencement ceremony for the year’s graduating class of 2016.
Apple: Protecting a criminal to protect us all

Why AQ needs to be more transparent

Abolishing the stigma of the starving artist

The red light at Krispy Kreme, enough said;
Spring Break for, allowing us to get more than three hours of sleep a night; Michigan, for having record numbers of voters on primary day; Broad City and Kimmy Schmidt, for returning for new seasons on Netflix; Tax returns, for allowing us buy more groceries than Pop-Tarts and Easy Mac; LUSH Cosmetics, for their Refugeseevewelcomes initiative; Leonardo Decaprio, for finally getting an Oscar.

HECKLES TO...

Sony, for not resolving the #freekehsea case; Weather changes, for literally raining on our parade; Chipotle restaurants, for continuing to close down and get people sick; Allergy season, for kicking in and making us all sneezy; Daylight Saving Time, for making us lose a precious hour of sleep right before returning to campus.

Dormitories, for always smelling like feet; Aaron Carter, for trying to make himself interesting; #refugeeswelcome campaign; groceries than Pop-Tarts and Easy Mac; returning for new seasons on Netflix; Aaron Campbell, for trying to make himself interesting; Mayra Monroy, for trying to make herself interesting; Anna Musiyenko, for trying to make herself interesting; Charlie Crowley, for trying to make himself interesting; Taylor Hodges, for trying to make himself interesting.

theSaint

2015-2016_EDITORIAL BOARD

Manny Moran
Mayra Monroy
Anna Musiyenko
Charlie Crowley
Taylor Hodges
Alyssa Kirk
Charlie Crowley
Mackenzie Murphy

Opinion Editor
Managing Editor
Managing Editor
Managing Editor
Website Editor

Please note that the names expressed on this page are those of their respective authors, and do not necessarily represent the views of The Saint or its editors.

MISSION

The Saint has worked diligently for the past 20 years to produce an informative, entertaining and journalistically correct student publication. The Saint is distributed by students at Aquinas College and in the surrounding community. The Saint is a non-commercial student publication. All profits provide free forums for the ideas, views and concerns of the Aquinas community.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

All letters must include a signature, typed or handwritten, and include a phone number for the same purpose of verification. The Saint reserves the right to edit letters to the editor based on content, punctuation, length and format. Letters should not exceed 500 words. We will not print anonymous letters to the editor and will not accept letters to the editor over the phone.

>> write us a letter <<
e-mail: saint@aquinas.edu
website: www.thesaintaq.com physical copies - AB, Room 20

Opinion Editor: Mackenzie Murphy E-mail: saint@aquinas.edu Phone: (616) 632-2975 Website: www.thesaintaq.com
in the last few years, expenses have gone up, and while I come to the point of asking for your financial support, I know that I could not have sold the magazine without your help.

Early on, Editor-in-Chief Maya Morrison and I decided over our mutual bitterness and our passion/ obsession for the news. We both were exhilarated by the thought of reinventing the student body publication and getting people excited about it. We've come a long way, and we know we will be leaving the magazine in good hands. We are confident that Mayra and I are basically super heroes, and that you, dear reader, are you who will be replacing me as culture editor.

I will miss you and your ideas, the conversations we have had, and the importance of the work you do. I hope you have as much fun as I did in working with you as well.

To Brooks for being the sweetest (and most talent and witty. I cannot wait to read your columns for the next few years, and to show Full House.

The biggest thank you is saved for the readers themselves. Thank you for giving your time to us, for sticking with us, and to the one who doesn't get tired of your work. I hope you have as much fun as I did in working with you as well.

To the Saint Reporter, you are the best. You have nurtured us, you have loved us, and you have given us the best. Thank you for tolerating me when I cry over corgis and reread Nabokov for the hundredth time.

As for the Saint Reporter's future, I should not fail to mention one thing. The Saint Reporter will never officially come out of retirement, as he performed his final editorial on Friday, March 11, in Miami, Florida.

Now, if you excuse me, I must leave to do great things. I hope you have as much fun as I did in working with you as well.

By Zoe Gipson

Staff Writer

Antique it up:
Great finds in Eastown

By Jeff Spitzer

The Saint Reporter

Are you a Hipster? Prefer second hand items to brand name items? So you are! Do you want to make a statement? Or just try to be a little different? The Saint Reporter recommends Eastown.

Eastown is a place where you can live your childhood and see what this new generation is all about. Eastown has come a long way since its humble beginnings.

The Black Floyd: 227 East
(6567 Wealthy Street—right next to Target)

Among prospects, Flashlight is one of the best, but you can never go wrong with any of the Eastown establishments. The Black Floyd is your place. After stopping by Alpha Beta and some last minute shopping, you can order a beer and a plate of fries, or you can order a beer and a plate of fries. You can do both.

The owner, Kimmy, is a hardworking woman, and she is not afraid to put in the effort to make sure that her customers are satisfied. She is always looking for ways to improve her restaurant, and she is never afraid to try new things. She is also very knowledgeable about the menu and the dishes she offers, and she is always happy to help her customers.

The Black Floyd is the perfect place to catch up with friends, have a good time, and enjoy some delicious food. The atmosphere is relaxed and friendly, and the staff is always professional and attentive. Whether you are looking for a casual meal or a fancy night out, The Black Floyd has something for everyone.

The Black Floyd is a great choice for a night out in Eastown. It is a cozy and comfortable place, and the food is amazing. I highly recommend it to anyone looking for a good time.

By Meghna Sarmak

Staff Writer

Wonderful world:
Come visit the city of Zootopia

This Disney animated film proves to be a great film for the whole family. Not only is it a good film for the whole family, but it also takes place in the city of Zootopia. This city is full of vibrant colors and exciting adventures. The city is filled with many different animals, and everyone loves it. The city is a place where all animals can live together in peace.

The main character of this film is a young animal named Nick. Nick is a fox who lives in the city of Zootopia. Nick is a very curious animal, and he loves to explore the city. He is always looking for new and exciting things to do.

The city of Zootopia is a place where all animals can live together in peace. The city is full of vibrant colors and exciting adventures. The city is filled with many different animals, and everyone loves it. The city is a place where all animals can live together in peace.

In this film, Nick meets a new friend named Judy. Judy is a police officer who is assigned to protect the city of Zootopia. Nick and Judy become friends, and they go on many adventures together.

The city of Zootopia is a place where all animals can live together in peace. The city is full of vibrant colors and exciting adventures. The city is filled with many different animals, and everyone loves it. The city is a place where all animals can live together in peace.

Nick and Judy go on many adventures together, and they learn a lot about the city of Zootopia. They also learn a lot about themselves. The city of Zootopia is a place where all animals can live together in peace. The city is full of vibrant colors and exciting adventures. The city is filled with many different animals, and everyone loves it.

The city of Zootopia is a place where all animals can live together in peace. The city is full of vibrant colors and exciting adventures. The city is filled with many different animals, and everyone loves it. The city is a place where all animals can live together in peace.

By Megan Sarmak

Staff Writer

In the last few years, expenses have gone up, and while I come to the point of asking for your financial support, I know that I could not have sold the magazine without your help.
Across the pond:
London Has Fallen delivers patriotic murder fest

Poppagandistic garbage: London Has Fallen bores on satire, as Gerard Butler portrays an unrealistic Presidential bodyguard. It’s not that it’s an absolutely unremarkable, poorly written exercise in nepotism that it borders on satire. And of course, what would a London Has Fallen be without a few banal stereotypes to go around? But unlike its predecessor, the only perceivable function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to revel in the death and suffering of America’s enemies. Meanwhile, President Asher (Aaron Eckhart) may not have lived on a desert island, but he knows his国情. In kicking off his first press conference, he laments that his only perceptible function is to reve... being with you. For those of you still much as it gave to me.

I'm not sure if it will last forever. I hope ous guy, but I've enjoyed every minute ations that I will carry with me

I'm going to write a typical piece on my favorite

It feels like to an end. The journey of being involved

I have loved being involved with the

I have lived being involved with the

A gust is coming to remember the games they've played on their sport's game and was second to Venema in re­

Lastly, Mitzner averaged 8.7 points per

Rebounding for the Saints next year

Bullock with 18. The Saints would

The Saints entered the WHAC

In search of success. This is before even mention­

The Saints will now begin their

It will also be interesting to keep an

As for our hometown heroes, the De­

WHAT TO WATCH: Nadal getting fired up

Tennis star Rafael Nadal announced that he

By Taylor Hodges

The Aquinas Men's Basketball

The Saints kicked off their

Major League Baseball

By Zac Harman

Spring is in the air (hopefully) all game, the changes in weather,

The Cubs are looking strong once again. Their dence like Jordan Zimmerman, Justin Ca­

With Ian Kinsler, Upton, Miguel Ca­

The Saints will take on the Mets, the St. Louis Cardinals

The Saints will kick off their sea­

The Saints will end this season’s

Men's Basketball

By Taylor Hodges

Women's Lav rollin'

By Charles Croydon

pregnancy resource center

WE ARE HERE TO HELP!
AQ Dance eyes Nationals

By Tamara Tiehoff

The phone "danced your heart out" is not something that the girls at the Aquinas College Dance Team have heard before. But the seniors in the team have danced their way to nationals and are now going on. "It's a lot of fun," said senior Summer Lnnot.

Each year, the seniors on the team hold a tryout of their own season. As well, the seniors have had the opportunity to try out for nationals. This year, 19 seniors in Division Nationals against 96 college teams. "I think it's a great opportunity for me and the team," said senior Carolina. Aquinas college's dance coach of 11 years.

The team is currently producing their routine for nationals and is very excited about the opportunity. "We love going on tour," said senior Hispanic. "We had to know that this was going to be a special year." The team has practiced hard and is looking forward to the national competition. The national competition will be held on April 15-16. The team will be showcasing their hard work and determination.

---

Men’s Tennis takes on Florida

By Taylor Hodges

The Saints are coming off a strong year last year to which they will be looking to carry in to this year. Head coach of men’s tennis, Jesse Krzykwa, has big plans for this year. "We’re looking for a good season," said Krzykwa. "We want to make it to nationals this year." The team has a lot of returning players and some new additions.

The team's starting lineup for this year includes: Senior Doug Zelenka at #1 singles, junior Matt Mitzner at #2 singles, and a win by Damon Johnston in singles with the lone loss at #3 doubles.

The team is looking to make it to nationals this year and is working hard to achieve that goal. The team is excited for the season and is looking forward to what the year will bring.

---

March Madness report

By Sam Bell

The Saints are looking to get off to a hot start on their season. "We want to get off to a good start," said senior Matt Mitzner. "We want to make it to nationals this year." The team has been working hard in practice and is looking forward to the season.

The team's starting lineup for this year includes: Senior Doug Zelenka at #1 singles, junior Matt Mitzner at #2 singles, and a win by Damon Johnston in singles with the lone loss at #3 doubles.

The team is looking to make it to nationals this year and is working hard to achieve that goal. The team is excited for the season and is looking forward to what the year will bring.